

The Table Bay

Why stay here?

- Set on the historic waterfront, this hotel has been created not only as a tribute to this world famous bay, but also setting standards in international service, cuisine and luxury.
- The 5-star Table Bay is magnificent, straddling the antique breakwater with a style that is entirely in keeping with its surroundings, it is a contemporary architecture treasure.
- Each room either overlooks the bay to Robben Island, or across the harbour and the city to Table Mountain. The hotel was opened with much fanfare in May 1997 by President Nelson Mandela.
- A long driveway sweeps from the main gates to the hotel entrance. At the towering porte cochère, cars are valet parked as guests make their way into the lobby by way of a glass walkway which pierces the stone breakwater wall inaugurated by Queen Victoria's son Prince Alfred in 1869 and now incorporated in the architecture of the hotel.
- The Table Bay is a premier conference centre and has a stellar record as an event venue for international and local corporations.
- Secure & direct access to Cape Town's renowned shopping destination, the Victoria & Alfred shopping centre.
- Outdoor swimming pool overlooking Robben Island.
- Complimentary Wi-Fi access throughout the hotel.
