

MIRAFLORES PARK

A BELMOND HOTEL
LIMA

Welcome to Miraflores Park, A Belmond Hotel

Glittering waves,
vibrant flowers
and the very best of coastal Lima – the dream is real.

CHAPTER ONE

Discover Peru

At once vibrant and mystical, Peru is a realm of lost civilizations and tangible history. With Belmond, journey to the beating heart of the Land of the Incas

A jewel in South America's crown, Peru encapsulates everything we love about travel: time-honored traditions, vibrant cultures and wild landscapes. That's why, for years, we've grown our family of hotels, trains and bespoke adventures across this fabled land. Our destinations take you to some of the country's most coveted areas, from stunning Cusco perched high in the Andes to the ancient Inca citadel of Machu Picchu and the awe-inspiring Colca Canyon.

Our globetrotting guests adore Peru's capital, Lima, perched on the Pacific Coast. Set in a verdant garden, Miraflores Park is a true urban sanctuary located beside the cosmopolitan city's cultural gems. Whether you join us here for leisure or business, this special retreat is destined to impress. Unwind in Zest Spa or, should you need, put in some extra hours in the sophisticated Executive Lounge. As evening falls, ascend to the rooftop pool for a sunset dip. The ocean views here are quite simply spectacular.

“The real voyage of discovery consists not in seeking new landscapes but in having new eyes.”
— Marcel Proust

Uncover Lima

Rising above a long coastline of crumbling cliffs, Lima is a place of contrasts. Ancient traditions and cultural gems fill this thriving metropolis

For centuries, this resilient city has survived and thrived in the face of apocalyptic earthquakes, warfare and the rise and fall of civilizations. Even before conquistador Pizarro sketched out the boundaries for the Ciudad de los Reyes - City of the Kings - in 1535, the area served as a center for indigenous peoples. Today, sprawling across 43 neighborhoods, Lima is Peru's largest urban area, home to one third of the country's population - nearing 10 million people. For travelers, it paints a picture of dynamism and energy that connects the present with its ancient past.

From the Pacific coast to the historic center, grand colonial buildings are juxtaposed by glass-encased skyscrapers. Majestic religious processions recall the 18th century while crowded nightclubs resound with tropical beats. Scattered throughout are artisan shops, galleries, quirky bars and tranquil plazas. Wander from simple cevicherías with staggeringly fresh seafood to Miraflores' trendy restaurants, and you'll soon discover why Lima is considered the continent's culinary capital. Come sunset, stroll the Malecón, a long coastal promenade, and people watch as you sip a pisco sour at a street-side café.

CHAPTER TWO

A Warm Welcome

Set in one of Lima's most fashionable areas, Miraflores Park takes you straight to the heart of all that's enticing about this capital city

A city hotel that can cite a string of palm trees as its closest neighbor and the glimmering Pacific Ocean as its view, Miraflores Park is a true urban sanctuary. Set in a verdant garden atop a towering cliff, this unique hotel takes its name from the well-heeled neighborhood of Miraflores, which translates as "Look! Flowers!" in English. This district of Lima is loved by local people for its blooming six-mile boardwalk that borders the Pacific and is a go-to destination for luxurious shopping.

Walk into our airy atrium and you're greeted by the sight of our sweeping staircase. Suites showcase views over the shimmering city or the Pacific. Head to our terrace pool for a dip and you'll see surfers and paragliders enjoying the coast. For the ultimate in pampering, visit Zest Spa. There's a buzz about Tragaluz restaurant, a relaxed space serving modern international cuisine. Belo Bar, meanwhile, offers innovative cocktails and is the perfect spot to plan the next day's adventures.

Memorable Dining

With healthy al fresco breakfasts, sumptuous Peruvian cuisine and out-of-this-world cocktails, this is a culinary experience like no other Transport your tastebuds with a complete Peruvian immersion. Raising the bar on excellence for Lima restaurants, Miraflores Park offers a full spectrum of fusion cuisine and informal dining.

True to its name, The Observatory restaurant offers spectacular panoramas across Lima and the Pacific Ocean. Indulge in the al fresco breakfast buffet: fresh breads, pastries, charcuterie, fruit, local Peruvian specialties and eggs cooked to order ensure a hearty start to your day.

Framed by a garden of indigenous plants, Tragaluz steals the spotlight in Lima's celebrated dining scene. Arresting art and chic interiors set the stage for culinary theater. Combining Asian, Mediterranean and Peruvian flavors, the menu has received critical acclaim worldwide.

As evening falls, step into our understatedly elegant Belo Bar, a favorite with the city's trendsetters. Pull up a seat at the marble counter, order our famed cheese platter and have the bartender pour you a glass of crisp white wine. Perfection.

Time To Unwind

With treatments rooted in Peruvian botanicals and a focus on ancient healing techniques, our spa will soothe both body and soul

Zest Spa offers a menu of nourishing therapies, body wraps and skin-polishing facials. Our specialists can design a complete treatment package for you to enjoy either individually or with a partner. Our signature massage, Zest Freestyle, is tailored to each guest's specific needs. It's the ideal way to replenish your energy after a busy day. Later, feel tranquility wash over you in the nearby relaxation area.

Should you want to stay in the comfort of your room, we can prepare an aromatic bath using salts and petals, illuminated by flickering candles. Champagne and strawberries make the perfect accompaniment.

Holistic fitness classes exercise body and mind. Be led through yoga asanas to enhance your core strength and flexibility, while achieving balance and alignment. Or, why not combine yoga with cardio in one complete fitness session at our gym? Guided by our bilingual instructors, each circuit is designed to leave you strong, supple and mentally renewed.

Feeling refreshed? Head up to our heated rooftop pool and admire breathtaking views of Lima and the Pacific Ocean.

Celebrate In Style

In typically singular style, Miraflores Park offers the ideal setting for any event, whether glamorous weddings or business meetings

With sublime views and state-of-the-art facilities, our hotel sets the stage for a truly memorable occasion. As the evening sun melts into the Pacific surf, our terrace is bathed in beautiful golden light – the perfect spot to say “I do”. Entertain intimate groups of 25 or host a lavish party for up to 300 guests across our eight ornate dining halls. Our dedicated team will handpick the city’s finest musicians, source the perfect photographer and create a celebratory menu of seasonal delights. Leave everything to us.

Miraflores Park is also distinguished by an exceptional level of business service. Our attentive staff make it their job to ensure business travelers stay cool, calm and relaxed, even when presenting to hundreds of delegates. Check into our professional Executive Lounge and make use of the latest technology, or consult with the team to tailor an event to your each and every need.

Unique Experiences

You don't need to step outside the hotel walls to discover a world of Peruvian pleasure

Art & Mixology at Tragaluz

Learn about the work of acclaimed Peruvian painter Mateo Liébana, whose vibrant work adorns the hotel walls, while sampling cocktails expertly prepared by our bar manager.

Afternoon Tea

Indulge in a sumptuous selection of finger sandwiches and petits fours. Meanwhile, each evening in the hotel lobby, a pianist will serenade you with a soothing repertoire.

Pisco Lessons

Pisco may have made its way across the world, but there's little quite like tasting Peru's national spirit in its birthplace. For the full experience, bartenders offer daily pisco lessons.

Peruvian Dance Class

Get into the groove with fellow guests. Under the expert guidance of Belmond staff, master basic steps before learning Peru's most iconic dances including the Marinera Norteña.

Cocktails on the Observatory Terrace

Admire the sunset from our 11th-floor Observatory terrace while sipping one of Peru's favorite cocktails: a pisco sour or a ginger-spiked chilcano.

Children's Cinema

Great films for youngsters are screened upon request on the second floor of the bar, keeping both them entertained and you relaxed. A selection of cookies and popcorn is also provided.

CHAPTER FOUR

Out & About

Beachside boulevards, colonial churches, chic restaurants, artisan markets... Lima's diverse treasures are waiting to be discovered

Once overlooked by international visitors hurrying through Peru's capital to explore Cusco or Arequipa, Lima's star has risen in recent years – and rightly so. You'll find eye-catching architecture throughout the city. The Church of San Francisco is famed for its canary-yellow façade, while Casa de Aliaga is the city's oldest colonial mansion. See some of the best of contemporary art at MATE museum. In search of souvenirs? Sift through printed fabrics, tasseled bags and handmade jewelry at the Mercado Inca.

Wander across the hopelessly romantic Bridge of Sighs, explore the Museum of the Inquisition and Congress or uncover the Sanctuary of Las Nazarenas, one of Lima's most storied churches. Surfers ride the waves of Playa Costa Verde while paragliders make the most of Miraflores' cliff tops.

Taste some of the world's best ceviche at La Mar or Japanese cuisine at Maido. Central, one of the World's 50 Best Restaurants, is within easy reach. Come sunset, wind your way back to Miraflores Park along our garden-lined path. Join the throng of strollers, slick cyclists and young lovers, all soaking up that gorgeous sea view.

Horse Show

Riders at a private hacienda will show off Peruvian Paso horses to dazzling effect as they step in time to the beat – the animals can even perform the famous “Marinera” dance of Peru.

Cycling

Lose yourself in the sights and sounds of the city and don't forget to stop for spicy street snacks along the way. Bicycles are available for use free of charge from the hotel.

Jogging and Yoga

Start the day calm, collected and revitalized with an energizing al fresco exercise class featuring stretching, breathing exercises, jogging, yoga and meditation.

Bohemian Tour

A private tour of Barranco, the artistic heart of Lima, is sure to enchant. Visit the museum of Pedro de Osma, see contemporary art at MATE, and visit the home of the artist Víctor Delfín.

Paracas: Ballestas Islands and National Reserve

Admire the famous three-pronged Candelabra geoglyph, stroll the Ballestas Islands and explore the Paracas National Reserve's museum.

Outdoor Fun

Gather your family for an expedition into the great outdoors with kites and frisbees for an active afternoon. Or feed Sariri, the hotel's pet turtle, and her friends in the pond.

CHAPTER FIVE

Continue Your Adventure

Explore Machu Picchu at sunrise or trace the glistening shores of Lake Titicaca. With Belmond, your Peruvian adventures will be simply extraordinary Belmond has perfected the art of creating magical escapes that fortify your connection with this fabled land. Combine any of our experiences to make your dream trip a reality.

Our hotels and trains sit in Peru's most iconic areas, with Sanctuary Lodge uniquely positioned at the entrance of Machu Picchu. From Poroy, just outside Cusco, catch the Hiram Bingham train which will take you towards its gates. Meanwhile the Andean Explorer, South America's first luxury sleeper train, takes guests across the Andes to Arequipa. In Cusco, sister hotels Monasterio and Palacio Nazarenas sit atop ancient Inca ruins. In cosmopolitan Lima, Miraflores Park perches on the Pacific seafront. Inland, Rio Sagrado is tucked in the Sacred Valley, an area replete with rare wildlife. Las Casitas offers a tranquil oasis surrounded by the Colca Canyon's dramatic landscapes.

We would be delighted to help you create a bespoke itinerary across the Land of the Incas and even on to our two magnificent hotels in Brazil. The adventure of a lifetime lies ahead.

Palacio Nazarenas, A Belmond Hotel

At once cool, cosmopolitan and steeped in history, this fairytale hideaway echoes all the qualities that make the surrounding city of Cusco so enchanting

Palacio Nazarenas was the private home of a conquistador before being transformed into a convent in 1715. Today, we've preserved all that's precious: original stonework, colonial frescoes and gold-framed paintings. Yet you'll also discover the best of the new world within our walls, including our local art collection, oxygen-enriched air and underfloor heating. Indulge in daring cuisine from Peru's leading chefs at Senzo restaurant or unwind at Hypnôze Spa where glass floors look down to beautifully preserved Inca foundations below.

Monasterio, A Belmond Hotel

A stone's throw from Plaza de Armas, Cusco's central square, this enchanting retreat captures the imagination with centuries-old charm

A former Jesuit seminary built atop an Inca palace, Monasterio is recognised by Peru's National Institute of Culture as a historical landmark. Step inside its quiet confines and you'll find graceful archways, cobbled paths and a gilded chapel hung with artwork dating from the 17th century. In the lush courtyard garden, a 300-year-old cedar tree is a testament to the living history of this special place. Dine by candlelight at El Tupay restaurant and you may be serenaded by one of Peru's leading sopranos. Later, settle in the vaulted lounge and sip a perfect pisco sour to the harmonies of sacred songs.

Andean Explorer, A Belmond Train

Carve a path through the Andean peaks aboard South America's first luxury sleeper train, reaching an altitude of some 4,630m. The journey itself is the destination...

Travel from Cusco across the lofty Altiplano to Lake Titicaca and Arequipa. Take in spectacular scenery, dive into vibrant cities, explore awe-inspiring ruins, and escape to serene enclaves. With Peruvian motifs and throws of alpaca wool, the Andean Explorer's 16 navy carriages echo the surrounding landscape. Once settled into your ensuite cabin, head up a restaurant car for an unforgettable repast on the rails. Gather with fellow guests around the grand piano before stepping out onto the deck, pisco sour in hand, as the La Raya mountains capture your heart.

Las Casitas, A Belmond Hotel

Alight from the Andean Explorer for a zig-zag journey through the Andes to this serene oasis which blends seamlessly with the Colca Canyon

At one with their natural habitat, the 20 charming cottages of Las Casitas dot the lush slopes high above the Colca River. Modern comforts and local style go hand in hand; private terraces gaze over a heated plunge pool, while indoor and outdoor showers offer a unique way to soak up those valley views. Feast on local delicacies at Curifia restaurant or sip cocktails at Puccq'io bar as stars fill the vast sky outside. The canyon offers endless opportunities for adventure: breathtaking hikes, horseback rides, trout fishing, condor spotting. Need to wind down? Feel everyday stresses melt away at Samay Spa.

Go Beyond

You've visited Belmond's hotels and trains. You've discovered ancient ruins and diverse landscapes. Yet there's still more to uncover in this fabled country

We want you to fall in love with Peru in the same way that we have. That's why our Belmond Journeys in Peru team will happily create bespoke itineraries across each of this country's most special places.

Venture to Paracas Bay, a few hours south of Lima, where beaches fringed by cliffs teem with rare birds. From here, a two-hour flight takes travelers across the famed Nazca Lines. Best viewed from the sky, this 50 square kilometers of desert floor is covered in drawings of animals and deities dating from 300BC. Further north, discover the archaeological remains of the Mochica and Chimú civilizations, including Chan Chan – the largest mud city in the Americas.

Inland, unleash your wild side on two spectacular cruises that meander among areas of jungle seldom visited by travelers. In Amazonian Pacaya Samiria Reserve, boats introduce you to neon-colored birds, playful monkeys and graceful herons. In the south, the Madre de Dios River meanders through rainforest so abundant that the variety of plant life in a single hectare exceeds that in the entire United States. Walk among treetops across the quarter mile-long canopy bridge and lose your heart to the wonders of Peru.
