Located on the western boundary of Makgadikgadi Pans National Park (MPNP), Meno is situated on tribal land overlooking the exceptionally scenic Boteti River, which has been flowing since 2008. The camp is easily accessible from Maun - just a 90 minute drive.

WHEN IS A GOOD TIME TO GO

Meno a Kwena is open all year round. The zebra congregate at the river during the dry season (but this cannot be guaranteed!) and game viewing is excellent in all seasons. The below is rough guide to the seasons, but in April/May and October/November, the weather is variable.

Dry season: April – October

Green season: November – March

Please see our rates sheet for detailed information on seasons & pricing.

HOW DO I GET THERE
