

Indemnity

We will do our very best to make your stay in our camp as comfortable and memorable as possible. Please remember that your stay in a wilderness area involves certain increased and important risks.

By signing this guest registration form you confirm that you will follow the instructions provided in the room information in our camps & lodges and make sure you read them. In all our camps & lodges a safety briefing takes place upon arrival. You confirm to follow the instructions as provided to you in the briefing concerning the particulars of our camps & lodges, the environment, the wildlife and hazards of staying in the remote areas in which we operate.

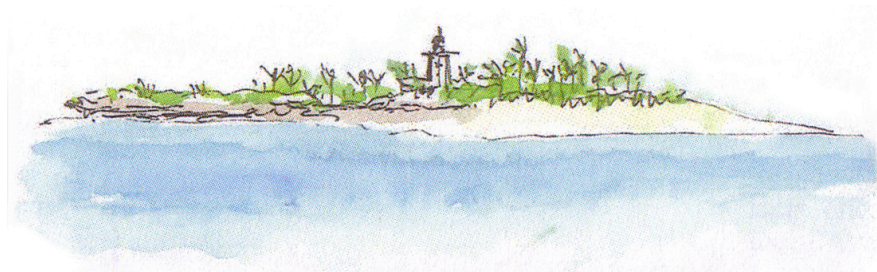

Please be aware that our camps & lodges are not fenced off their surroundings. Wild animals – large and small – wander through the accommodation and can be very dangerous. Do not let any children below the age of 16 walk around the property without parental supervision. The nature of the surroundings also causes an increased risk of fire, extreme weather conditions (for example, lighting, floods, storms) or theft.

By signing this indemnity, you agree that we – the Essential Destinations (ED), any companies in the ED Group and all camps & lodges owned by these entities, any of their employees, subcontractors or suppliers – do NOT accept any liability for any damage or loss of property, injury (fatal or otherwise) however caused, unless when caused by willful misconduct or gross negligence of the management of the ED lodge and or camp you are visiting. This also applies to items, which you have given in custody. This imitation of liability applies not only to the accommodation itself but also to any activities in the surrounding land (including game drives, walking safaris, and any excursions in a car or on foot, on a horse or camel, in a boat or in an airplane), if we were to be held responsible and liable for organizing such activity.

By signing this form, you indemnify the Essential Destinations, all ED camps & lodges and any companies in the ED Group against any claim, which may be made by any member of your party or persons invited by you or other related parties and/or entities or representative(s). Finally, you hereby authorize the management of all ED camps & lodges and the central management teams of ED Group to, in case of a medical emergency involving yourself or other members your party, take any measure and incur any medical evacuation costs that is reasonably required to secure the health and safety of the persons involved, and you undertake that you have proper insurance cover for medical evacuation and that, insofar as your insurance cover is sufficient or not forthcoming, you will indemnify the ED Group for the medical evacuation costs.
