DAY 1 • 2 • 3 • 4 • 5

Nkorombo is nestled in a stunning little spot on a bend in the Mara River, embodying the laid-back intimacy characteristic of Alex's camps. Awaken feeling part of a nature documentary amidst lions, zebras and buffaloes... This reserve takes its name from the Masai word for 'dotted', and indeed the gently rolling grasslands are littered with wildlife. Birds, too, are prolific. A photographer's dream, it's the perfect place to start your safari. The rich abundance, blissfully empty of the crowds: get your eye in with plentiful game and spectacular landscapes, and let Alex reveal the magic of the Mara's photographic potential.

DAY 6 • 7 • 8 • 9 • 10

Our Kusini campsite is tucked under a canopy of striking Tortilis trees, in a woodland that the wildebeest weave through as they search for grazing and birthing spots. Six days in, your senses are enlivened and you have honed your focus: it's time to test your skills on all that the Serengeti has to offer. The life-giving rains sweep in dramatic storms and morning sunshine coaxes fields of wildflowers out, setting an idyllic scene for the abundance of wildlife that parades the Ndotu area. From millions of wildebeest in the vastness of the savannah to a dung beetle parting two blades of grass, there is an infinite spectrum to train your lens on.
