OUR TREAT

Stay for three consecutive nights and receive an additional one-night stay – with our compliments.

- You may choose to extend your stay during your initial visit.
- Or use your one-night gift certificate as a perfect excuse to come and visit on yet another occasion.
- Or gift your certificate to someone special in your life so they too can enjoy this wonderful experience.*
- Available to Huka Lodge guests from 01 April – 14 Dec. 2016 and from 01 April – 31 Aug. 2017.
- Available at Dolphin Island from 14 March – 30 June 2016, from 01 Oct. – 14 Dec. 2016 and from 14 March – 30 June 2017.
- Available at Grande Provence from 01 April – 30 Sept. 2016 and from 01 April – 31 Aug. 2017. The complimentary one-night stay may be taken up to twelve months beyond your initial visit.

*Conditions do apply. At Grande Provence there are only a limited number of room nights available for those wishing to purchase a '4 for 3' Package. These can only be allocated in advance – on a strictly first-in, first-served basis, and only available to Bed and Breakfast guests at The Owner's Cottage and La Provençale.

Conditions:

If the initial three-night purchase was for our High Summer season then the complimentary night may be redeemed during any season.

Late Summer and Spring season guests may redeem during this same period or during our Autumn-Winter season.

Autumn-Winter season is to be used within the same period. A black-out applies however to reservations made from 20 December – 05 January; the 4 for 3 offer will not be available during this time.

This package is not available for exclusive-use guests at Grande Provence Estate and the 4 for 3 is only offered at the time of booking.

If your stay is at The Owner's Cottage or the Alan Pye Cottage at Huka Lodge and you wish to redeem your complimentary night it will be as a Junior Lodge Suite guest.

All one-night stays must be redeemed at the property where the initial reservation was made, as this is not a transferable inter-property offer.

This complimentary offer is issued exclusively for the personal use of our guests and cannot be issued to benefit any other commercial party without our prior permission.*

No cash may be redeemed in lieu of the one-night stay, or commissions applied to this gift.

Reservations required for the extension of stays and the redemption of gift certificates is always subject to availability.

This offer cannot be retrospectively applied to bookings already confirmed within our reservations system.
