Discover Punakha

IN THE HIMALAYAN KINGDOM OF BHUTAN

A spectacle of spiritual solitude

A historic and cultural wonder, engulfed by lush forested hills and idyllically set at the junction of the eminent Pho and Mo Chu rivers, the ancient capital city of Punakha is steeped in tradition and charm.

DISCOVER PUNAKHA, BHUTAN

Why visit Punakha?

Inextricably connected to Bhutanese history, this wholly-blessed destination is a celebration of tradition and culture, set to captivate even the most discerning traveller.

1

ACTIVE ADVENTURES

Travellers can enjoy myriad excursions; from gentle village strolls, treks over Himalaya passes and off-road mountain bike trails to traditional bow and arrow archery, whitewater river rafting, and seasonal paddy ploughing and planting. Adventures abound in the Punakha Valley suited for the whole family.

2

CULTURAL SPECTACULAR

Punakha is home to the Punakha Dzong; Bhutan's second oldest Dzong, the Khamsum Yuelley Namgyal Chorten; the sacred Buddhist temple, the Punakha Tshechu; one of the country's most popular festivals, and the Sangchhen Dorji Lhuendrup Lhakhang Nunnery; a Buddhist college for nuns. Discover a plethora of historical sites well-worthy of their worldly praise.

3

SPIRITUAL AWAKENING

Spread merit by hoisting colourful prayer flags, rejuvenate your mind and spirit by practicing yoga against a backdrop of the Himalaya, chant sacred prayers with Bhutanese monks, take lessons on Buddhism from a Buddhist master, soothe your inner soul through indigenous therapies and meditation techniques, and light butter lamps for good fortune. Punakha's divine splendour is endless.

4

NATURAL BEAUTY

Recognised as one of the world's few carbon-negative countries, with almost 70% of Bhutan covered in dense forest, it comes as no surprise Punakha too is highly-acclaimed for its varied biodiversity and widely-protected flora and fauna. This area is home to over 600 bird species, including the endangered white-bellied heron, plus the Himalayan black bear, red panda, leopard, and Bengal tiger.

Travel Bhutan and beyond

Travelling to and around Bhutan requires careful consideration and attention to detail. Contact your preferred travel specialist to assist with your travel plans.

GETTING THERE

TO AND AROUND BHUTAN
Paro International Airport in Paro is Bhutan's sole international airport.

Easily accessible to and from India, Nepal, Thailand and Singapore. All guests flying into Bhutan must fly with Druk Air or Bhutan Airlines. We recommend Druk Air owing to its good international connectivity.

Travel by road is the most common and efficient mode of transport in Bhutan. It is mandatory to travel with a private local guide and driver.

Self-drive and travel is not recommended as the public transport system is not evolved nor suited for international travellers.

TO &BEYOND PUNAKHA RIVER LODGE
All guests must fly into Paro International Airport in Paro. At the airport, an &Beyond guide will meet and transfer you to the lodge in Punakha (approximately three and a half hours with stops). Helicopter transfers available on request and dependant on availability.

Adventures of a Lifetime

For the cultural creatures

A diverse array of captivating experiences provide travellers with a sneak-peek into the enriching and fascinating lives of the Bhutanese people.

1

BHUTAN'S ROYAL PUNAKHA DZONG

Translated to mean 'palace of great happiness or bliss', this 17th-century Dzong is celebrated as one of Bhutan's oldest, largest and most striking fortified monasteries. The first National Assembly was held here in 1953, and all of Bhutan's kings are crowned here before they can take their throne in Thimphu.

2

THE TEMPLE OF THE DIVINE MADMAN

Located on a round hillock on the edge of the Punakha Valley, Chimi Lhakhang was built in 1499 by the 14th Drukpa hierarchy, Ngawang Choegyel, after the site was blessed by 'the Divine Madman' the maverick saint, Drukpa Kunley. This Buddhist temple is famously known as a place of fertility.

3

KHAMSUM YUELLEY NAMGYAL CHORTEN

Built by Her Majesty the Queen Ashi Tshering Yangdon, the Khamsum Yuelley Namgyal Chorten houses representations of the tantric form of Buddhist deities that subjugate enemies and ward off harmful influences on the people of Bhutan. Built for the protection of the country and the present king, the chorten also offers impressive views of the valley below.

SANGCHHEN DORJI LHUENDRUP LHAKHANG

Steeped in tradition and culture, the Sangchhen Dorji Lhuendrup Lhakhang houses a 4.2 m (14 ft) bronze statue of Avalokiteshvara, made by local Bhutanese artisans. Other sacred statues include those of The Buddha, Guru Rinpoche, Zhabdrung Ngawang Namgyel, Tsela Namsum, and the 21 Taras. It is also a permanent school of higher learning and a meditation centre for nuns.

5

PUNAKHA SUSPENSION BRIDGE

Stretching across the majestic Pho Chu, the Punakha suspension bridge is 180 m (590 ft) in length, making it one of the longest suspension bridges in Bhutan. Strongly strengthened with iron chains and metal netting, this extraordinary bridge adorned in fluttering prayer flags, connects Punakha Dzong to the surrounding villages.

Adventures of a Lifetime

For the eager explorers

Punakha rewards travellers with a plethora of active experiences to choose from that can be tailored according to your personal preference, ability and level of difficulty.

1

DOCHU LA PASS HIKE

Peaking at an impressive 3 140 m (10 302 ft) above sea level, this legendary mountain pass boasts exceptional views of the snow-capped eastern Himalaya on a clear day. From here you can opt to hike through beautiful forests down to the Lampelri Botanical Garden or for something more strenuous, hike up to the Lungchutse Temple.

2

HOKATSHO LAKE HIKE

Beginning at the 15th century temple, Chorten Nyeabu, this two to three hour hike follows a man-made irrigation channel almost all the way to the beautiful Hokatsho Lake tucked between dense jungle vegetation. Upon reaching the lake, a small path leads down to the water, offering magnificent views of the peaceful and untouched surrounds.

3

WATER RAFTING*

The Pho Chu offers thrill-seekers a 16 km (9.9 mi) course, loaded with 15 rapids, ranging from class 2 to 4. Its gentler counterpart, the Mo Chu, is 10 km (6.2 mi), with 10 rapids graded class 2. Witness breathtaking views of sub-tropical scenery, plus secluded stretches of serene sparkling water.

4

MOUNTAIN BIKING

Immerse yourself exploring Punakha Valley's sacred, forested landscapes off-road, on two wheels. Ideal for beginners to experienced riders, the area offers an array of mountain bike routes; from easy-going, non-technical single tracks to extreme, adrenaline-pumping off-road trails.

5

BIRDWATCHING

Ideal for first-time or serious birders, Punakha's unique landscape of mountains, hills, rivers and forests offers the perfect landscape to search for native and migratory species in the area. At times, bird calls might lead you to sightings of the common kestrel, pallas fish eagle, crested kingfisher, white-bellied heron, and chestnut-headed tesia, to name a few.

6

ARCHERY

Archery is the national sport of Bhutan, and even more so, a nationwide obsession with every Bhutanese village sporting an archery field. Enjoyed as a group activity, targets are typically set approximately 145 m (475 ft) from the archer, making for a fun experience suited for the whole family.

Adventures of a Lifetime

For the spiritual souls

Become immersed in the Bhutanese culture, taking part in an array of once-in-a-lifetime experiences that offer far beyond the expected.

TSHEWANG CEREMONY (TEMPLE OR NUNNERY)*

Take part in a traditional Tshewang (blessing) ceremony held by a Bhutanese monk in a temple or nunnery for personal empowerment and wish fulfilment. The prayer will be approximately 30-minutes, during which you can make an offering by lighting butter lamps at the monastery altar. The sacred ceremony gently ends with the monk giving his blessings and assisting in a private circuit of the holy shrine.

2

GUIDED WALK THROUGH A LOCAL VILLAGE

Step into another culture with a guided walk through a local village. Visit an authentic Bhutanese farmhouse to learn about the local people's traditional farming ways and techniques. A guided village walk is a humbling and enriching experience.

3

TRADITIONAL BHUTANESE COOKING CLASSES*

The Bhutanese food culture is a powerful tradition. While greatly influenced by Indian and Chinese cuisines, Bhutan's food is prepared with its own twist making for an enlightening gastronomic experience. Learn about Bhutan's unique way of preparing food by embarking on a traditional Bhutanese cooking class in the lodge's outdoor interactive kitchen.

4

PICTURESQUE PICNIC EXCURSIONS

Book a private breakfast, lunch or late afternoon picnic for an enlightening experience that not only highlights Bhutan's local cuisine but also its scenic surrounds. Soak in the warming sun with the Mo Chu as your backdrop or lounge lazily in the valley's verdant paddy fields. Other options include picnicking at Khamsum Yuelley Namgyal Chorten or on a guided village walk.

5

THE COLOURFUL PUNAKHA TSHECHU FESTIVAL

The Punakha Tshechu festival is one of Bhutan's most popular celebrations. Celebrated over several days, the festival features an array of dances performed by monks in beautiful costumes and masks. The unfurling of the Thongdrol (a large silk painting) of Guru Rinpoche on the last day is a highlight of the festival for local communities.

1

YOGA AND MEDITATION

Balance your chakras and enjoy a meditative yoga session that harmonises the body, mind and spirit. Find your inner peace and enjoy the nature and serenity the area has to offer with the tranquil sounds of the streaming Mo Chu in the background. Classes can be accommodated to suit all levels of experiences and preferred styles, and can be taken in private or as part of a group.

2

WELLNESS TREATMENTS

Unwind and reconnect with a soul-soothing wellness treatment in the lodge's exquisite spa. We have a wide range of indulgent therapies on offer, suited to all wellness needs. All products used are 100% natural, made with only local ingredients.

3

BLESSINGS AND CEREMONIES

Celebrate special occasions, such as weddings, dedications and engagements, with traditional Tshewang (blessing) ceremony held by a Bhutanese monk in a temple or nunnery. The prayer will be approximately 30-minutes, during which you can make an offering by lighting butter lamps at the monastery altar.

4

BHUTANESE HOT STONE BATH

Hot stone baths are imbued in Bhutanese culture. A unique therapeutic healing process, a Bhutanese hot stone bath is typically made from local pinewood and uses Menchu, a traditional medicinal water (fresh river water mixed with Artemisia leaves), and river stones heated by fire. It is believed the process of using the hot stones to heat the cool water releases an array of key minerals with medical benefits.
