

Relaxation in an African Ambience

Frans Indongo Lodge is situated only 43 km from Otjiwarongo on the road from/to Otavi. Therefore our lodge is not only the ideal stopover for the traveler route from Windhoek to the Etosha Park, the Caprivi or to Botswana, but it also offers various remarkable day trips in the near surrounding.

Come and discover the tasteful ambience with African features and objects of the traditional courtyards of the Owambo tribe, the beautiful lush garden and our well-cared-for pool invite you to relax.

From our wooden terrace we offer you a fascinating observation over the peaceful and majestic landscape of the thorn bush savanna up to the mighty Waterberg Plateau. Only at our beautiful lodge you can observe the rare and only in South Africa occurring grazing White Blesbok and Black Springbok, together with Zebra, Black Wildebeest, Impala and many other game species in their natural habitat.

Take pleasure in drinking the famous Namibian “Rock Shandy” and watching one of the incomparable African sundowners which bathes the sandstone rocks of the Waterberg Plateau beyond the thorn bush savanna in a red light. Enjoy the culinary valuables of our excellent kitchen with a noble South African wine, as well as the friendly and personal care. Set menus are served at the thatched open Lapa, which is the perfect place to end an eventful day in Namibia.

14 luxury Bungalows and Rooms with en-suite bathrooms, TV, Air-condition, mini bar, Mosquito net, telephone, hair dryer and coffee & tea facilities await you. One Bungalow is furnished for handicapped persons.
