

Llao Llao Resort

A place to do much more than just resting

PATAGONIA, ARGENTINA

General information

LOCATION

Llao Llao Hotel, designed by architect Alejandro Bustillo, was opened for the first time in 1938. After a fire burnt the hotel down in 1939, it was reopened with its present structure in 1940. It is located in the center of the lake district, within the Nahuel Huapi National Park, in the heart of Argentine Patagonia, framed by López, Capilla and Tronador mountain peaks. It is only a two-hour flight from Buenos Aires City and 500 mts from Puerto Pañuelo, arrival and departure point for "Cruce de los Lagos" (Lake Crossing and all lake tours) and other lake tours.

There is no place like this in the world, a true ecological paradise, with crystalline waters and pure air. In perfect balance with the stunning natural environment of the region, it has become a must for the tourist visiting Argentina.
