WHERE IS JACK'S CAMP

20°29'47.83"S 25°11'6.71"E

Jack's Camp is located in Botswana's Makgadikgadi Salt Pans. The remnants of an enormous super-lake that used to cover most of Southern Africa, Jack described the area as the "savage beauty of a forgotten Africa." It's a landscape of space and remoteness and otherworldly vistas dotted with unique desert wildlife.

WHEN IS A GOOD TIME TO GO

Jack's Camp is open all year round. Please note that some activities are seasonally dependent.

Dry season: 16 April – 31 October

Green season: 01 November – 15 April

Please see our rates sheet for detailed information on seasons & pricing.

HOW DO I GET THERE

There are direct flights from Cape Town and Johannesburg to Maun, from where you will take a small charter plane to the Makgadikgadi and Jack's Camp. Road and self-drive transfers from Maun (approx. 4-5 hrs) are also possible.

WHERE WILL I STAY

Jack's Camp has 7 twin (each with extra length queen size beds) and 2 double tents. With a huge 270 sqm of interior floor space, paying homage to the property's much loved 1940s campaign style. The tents are cool and spacious and adorned with a classic East African safari feel. Persian and North African rugs, brass fittings, luxuriant textiles, Natural History mahogany cabinets and an overhead bed cooling system. Each ensuite bathroom has an indoor and outdoor shower. The outer deck has a private plunge pool, overlooking the Makgadikgadi Pans.
