

MARA RIVER POST

Recently built, the Mara River Post, is composed of 2 separate camps (8 tents on each camp) and located on a hill overlooking the Mara River. Each of the 16 luxurious tents offer a breathtaking view of the river.

The tents, equipped with a shower room and toilets, give an elegant and authentic atmosphere. The thatched roofs will guarantee a comfortable temperature inside the tents even during the hottest seasons.

The common areas are cozy and pleasant and offer a breathtaking view of the river where you can see the crossing of herds of wildebeest or families of elephants. The service is neat and the meals tasty.

The northern part of the Serengeti certainly marks a highlight during the safari, the richness of wildlife is incomparable.

The Mara River is particularly famous for its dramatic and sometimes dramatic scenes, where millions of wildebeest set off to cross the river trying to survive the crocodile attacks.
