The Masai Mara is the Africa you see when you close your eyes and daydream your way through your bucket list of must-visit destinations. It's the perfect setting for our 'Wildebeest Tales'.

By choosing the 'Wildebeest Tales' safari, you'll gain fresh perspectives on a landscape that's both thrillingly familiar and intriguingly novel. You'll see the people and wildlife of the Mara through new eyes, from exclusive vantage points, and with the benefit of the sort of understanding that can only be gained from true immersion.

Our 'Wildebeest Tales' safari offer endless vistas, plus the chance to take a closer look at the details that comprise the Mara's magical mosaic of life. Come and see a living work of art, and gain insights into the vital conservation initiatives that are maintaining the fabric of this quintessentially Kenyan ecosystem.

Our suggested safari (as outlined below) has been designed by the Saruni Basecamp journey specialists to let you see the very best of the Mara, but you can also ask our team to create a bespoke safari that focuses on your specific interests, and is entirely aligned with your budget and timeframe parameters.

SUGGESTED SAFARI

(MAY VARY DEPENDING ON LOCAL CIRCUMSTANCES, WEATHER, AND THE RECOMMENDATIONS OF YOUR GUIDES)

Day 1 | Saruni Eagle View

- Saruni Basecamp transfer from Jomo Kenyatta International Airport to Wilson Airport (both in Nairobi).
- Forty-five-minute* scenic flight to the Olseki Airstrip in the Mara, to be met by a Saruni Basecamp guide for your first game drive, en route to Saruni Eagle View.
- After lunch, embark on your first full game drive in the Mara Naboisho Conservancy – over 50,000 acres of untamed African wilderness, with exclusive access to guests of Saruni Eagle View.
- Return to camp in time for sundowners as you enjoy the stunning views out over the endless Koiyaki Plains.

Day 2 | Saruni Eagle View

- Game drives from Saruni Eagle View can include excursions off-road, which would not be permitted in a National Reserve. This lets you get closer to the wildlife you most want to see, and can yield amazing photographic opportunities.
- Enjoy a picnic brunch in the midst of the savannah, with further opportunities to watch wildlife as you eat.
- Relax back in camp during the heat of the day, before heading out again on a game drive to new areas within the Conservancy, as your local guide uses his bush skills to locate the animals you most want to see.
- Share safari tales around the campfire after dinner.

Day 3 | Saruni Eagle View to Saruni Leopard Hill

- A change of pace as you set off for your next destination – on foot. Accompanied by your Maasai guide, you'll embark on a full-day walking safari to Saruni Leopard Hill.
- The distance is not great, and the pace is leisurely – the guided walking safari is all about seeing the smaller details of the Mara ecosystem.
- While away the heat of the day under a shady tree, before the final stretch of the walk brings you to Saruni Leopard Hill in time to refresh and relax before dinner.

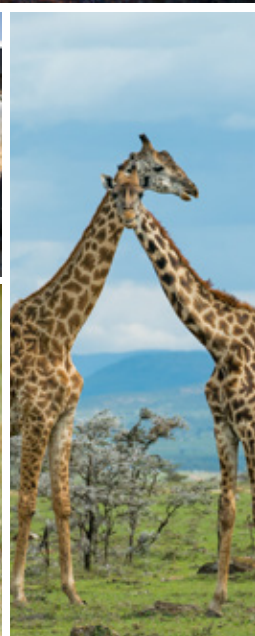

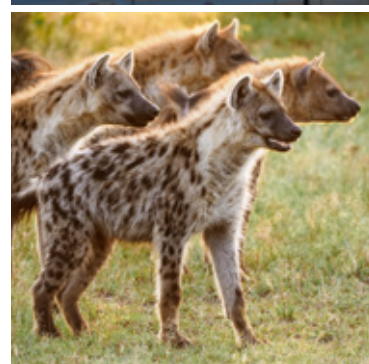

Day 4 | Saruni Leopard Hill

- Spend the morning focusing on your wellness in the restful, inspiring surroundings of the Mara Naboisho conservancy, beginning with a morning yoga session followed by a relaxing massage treatment.
- In the afternoon, head out to explore the area surrounding Saruni Leopard Hill in search of any creatures you've not yet seen.
- Enjoy a final bush dinner with the roars of lions and the whoops of hyena echoing in the distance.

Day 5 | Departure

- Choose your activity for your last morning in the Mara, before an early lunch in camp and time to gather your belongings before your departure.
- Saruni Basecamp transfer* to Jomo Kenyatta International Airport, with dinner at the Talisman or Carnivore restaurant (flight times permitting; dinner on your own account). Alternatively, ask us for a different dining recommendation – our team knows all the best spots in town.
