

Situated between the drama of the famous Anglo Zulu War battlefields of Isandlwana and Rorke's Drift, the Rattray family's roots run deep having their own 5000 acre game reserve listed as a Natural Heritage Site. They all share a deep passion for the oral tradition of Zulu history, the area, conservation and community. Their warm and generous hospitality is unsurpassed.

Child Policy

Due to the length and content of the tours, we do not normally allow children under the age of 12 years to go on these tours. It will be at the lecturer's discretion whether we can accommodate children younger than 12. We do offer child-minding facilities whilst parents are out on tour and in the evening while parents are at dinner. For the keen junior historians our Battlefield Kids Tour is an excellent option.

Please note that we need to give consideration to other guests in the Lodge and Guest House; we therefore do not allow children under 8 years into our dining and sitting room. Separate meal times will be arranged at the convenience of the child and parent.

At the Lodge and Guest House, only one child aged under 12 years, is permitted to share the room with two parents. Normal rates will be charged for children in their own room.
