

MANTA

This is Manta, our treasured, remote island hideaway where you can feel the simplicity of a naturally evolved traditional Swahili island culture – and timeless peace and quiet.

An aerial photograph of a tropical beach resort. On the left, there is a swimming pool with a slide, surrounded by lush greenery and several thatched-roof huts. A long, narrow line of wooden structures, possibly a pier or a walkway, extends from the beach into the turquoise water. The water is crystal clear, showing the sandy bottom and some small boats. The overall scene is idyllic and serene.

Embrace the Kwanini way of life.

1 underwater room suite, 250 m off the shore. Encapsulated within a turquoise blue bubble, watching shoals of reef fish swim by.

The floating structure, Swedish engineered, provides three levels, above the water clad in local hardwood is a lounge, bathroom below a stargazing, sun tanning bed. Each one worthy of its own story.
