COMPETITION RULES

Open to anyone who has stayed at a Kwando Camp from 1 November to 31 October of the following year (a 12-month period). Deadline for entries is 10 December.

We allow limited digital adjustments but champion true and authentic representation of Botswana's majestic nature.

If we have cause to believe images have been subject to significant editing (for example, assisted by AI software, adding, moving or removing objects, animals or parts of animals, plants, people etc) we may not consider the entry for final judging.

The prize is for a fully paid five-night safari for one person. Visiting any combination of the Kwando camps, including inter-camp charter flights from and to Maun. It excludes international flights from and to Maun, private vehicle, travel insurance and extra nights. The prize is subject to availability and can be redeemed within a one year period after the winner is announced. The prize is non-redeemable in cash. Arrangements to be made through original tour operator or agent who booked your trip.

Category winners (who did not win the overall prize) are also entitled to 20% off the accommodation only on a future stay. This can be redeemed within a one year period after the winner is announced. The prize is non-redeemable in cash. Arrangements to be made through original tour operator or agent who booked your trip. The two are not combinable for the overall winner.

By entering your images into the competition, you grant Kwando Safaris non-exclusive use to reproduce the images for any promotional purpose, whether published, included on websites or any other promotional purpose. You must be the sole author and owner of the copyright for all images entered.

Kwando Safaris will shortlist entires and the final decision will be made by an independent judge. The judge's decision on all matters relating to the competition is final, and no correspondence will be entered concerning the competition's judging and organisation.

Winners and commended photographers will be notified by the end of March of the following year. The results will be announced through the Kwando Safaris Facebook page.

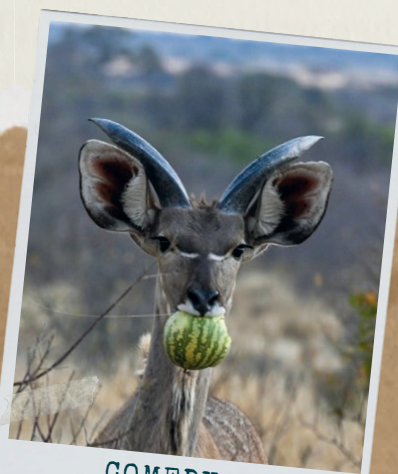

No employees of Kwando may enter the competition, although there will be a prize for the guide who guided the winner.
