

From Johannesburg (JHB)

- When coming out from the airport, take the Boksburg turn off (not Pretoria/Johannesburg) and travel for approximately 3kms and then take the N12 turnoff and travel past Benoni towards eMalahleni (Witbank), where it connects to the N4 coming from Pretoria
- Continue on the N4 towards Nelspruit (we suggest going via Schoemanskloof as it is very scenic and less trucks)
- Continue on the N4 bypassing Nelspruit towards Maputo (Mozambique), 61kms from Nelspruit pass through the town of Malelane, travel 3kms and turn left to the Malelane gate, Kruger National Park
- Enter the Kruger Park at the Malelane Gate
- Continue 4 km on the tarred road until you reach the S114. You will see the sign to Lukimbi on the left hand side of the road
- Turn right on to the S114. Continue for 7 kms then branch off to the right on the S25
- Take the S25 for 6 kms
- Cross over the Mlambane River causeway – this is the main watercourse
- A further 1.6 kms down the road there is a turn off to the left with the Lukimbi logo, as well as an official sign on the right hand side. This is the access road to Lukimbi. Continue on this road for 7 kms until you reach the entrance to the Lodge

From Kruger Mpumalanga International Airport (KMIA)

Via the Malelane Gate of the Kruger National Park

- As you come out of the airport, drive to the T-Junction and turn left on to the R538 to Nelspruit. Continue on this road, cross over the 4 ways stop, until you see the N4 and turn left here to Malelane. The N4 is a toll road with a tollgate near Malelane
- Travel for 48 kms on the N4 to Malelane
- Pass the town of Malelane, travel for 3 kms and then turn left to the Malelane Gate, Kruger National Park.
- Enter the Kruger Park at the Malelane Gate
- Continue on the tarred road until you reach the S114. You will see the sign to Lukimbi on the left-hand side of the road
- Turn right on to the S114
- Continue for 7 kms then branch off to the right on the S25
- Travel for 6 kms on the S25

- A further 1.6 kms down the road there is a turn off to the left with the Lukimbi logo, as well as an official sign on the right-hand side. This is the access road to Lukimbi. Continue on this road for 7 kms until you reach the entry to the Lodge

Points to remember: There are three toll gates on the N4. The first is at Middelburg, the second at Machadadorp and the final at Malelane (Nkomazi Plaza). There is an entrance fee per person to the Kruger Park. The lodge is 445kms from Johannesburg.

The lodge telephone number is +27 (13) 735 8000. If you have any problems, please telephone Sean or Shelley at the lodge and they will be able to help you. The lodge is in cell phone range.

If you need a toilet or coffee stop, Milly's is just before the Machado Plaza and is approximately 2 hours from Johannesburg.
