Outeniqua Farmers Market

The Outeniqua Farmer's Market open to the public on Saturday 19 November 2011. The five-hectare site lies opposite the Garden Route Mall at the George junction on the N2. Visitors to the Outeniqua Farmers' Market will find more than 150 food and craft stalls spread across a total trading area of 1 260m<sup>2</sup>. The ancient name Outeniqua means 'the land where honey comes from'. This changed on 19 November 2011 when the Outeniqua Farmers' Market opened, providing a new shopping destination that created a new heart for George. From that day onwards, Outeniqua is the land where honey, cheese, veggies, pies, cakes, fruit and other delicious foods comes from. | www.outeniquafarmersmarket.co.za

JohnBenn Lagoon Cruise

The John Benn is a double-decker floating restaurant offering daily lagoon cruises to the Knysna Heads. A memorable family activity on the Knysna Lagoon and one of the best floating restaurants in the area. Cruise to the Knysna Heads, on a boat steeped in history, named after a legendary pilot of a bygone era. The boat is comfortable and cosy with a classic wooden finish and guests can enjoy a friendly and hospitable service. Sundowner cruises with fresh Knysna oysters and local beer or sparkling wine are available as are special group menus whilst cruising. Two full bars exist on upper and lower decks. The boat is fully enclosed and therefore is not weather dependent.

Montagu Pass & Wine Tasting

Depart George and prepare for a scenic tour of the Montagu Pass. Part romantic, part scary, the dusty road through the Outeniqua Mountains is steeped in history and stories. Built by convicts in the 1840s, the pass was one of only a few roads that connected the Karoo and the coast, and was considered to have revolutionised travel and transport in the region. Hidden away at the top of this pass is a little gem, Herold Wines which has a variety of wines with cheese platters to the liking of the connoisseur.

Garden Route Wine Tasting

Tour will take us on an expedition to Calitzdorp where we will be guided over the Outeniqua Mountains and through the little Karoo. Our journey will take us to the world of wanderers where grapes are grown to become bottles of port, wine and liquor. Yes we will do wine tasting. We will travel to no less than 4 establishments and enjoy what the earth has to offer. Our journey will lead us to a restaurant in Oudtshoorn for a scrumptious lunch and bring us back to Fancourt with some bottles that you can purchase. At one of the establishments we will enjoy an official wine tasting and demonstration from the wine maker. This is a definite winner in everyone's books.
