Who We Are

- Sestablished in 2003, a pioneering collection of 5 unique and intimate lodges, camps and exclusive-use homes, found in Kenya's most beautiful and private wildlife conservancies, supported by a Nairobi-based tour operator, offering a high-end circuit and a fully-integrated set of services;
- Strategically chosen locations: the properties are away from the crowds and off-the-beaten track in Kenya's most spectacular and diverse areas offering the ultimate in authenticity in partnership with sustainable conservation and the local communities;
- s An established brand, leader in community-based conservation and tourism;

Why Saruni?

Cultural Immersion & Family Activity

Saruni's unique Warriors Academy is an interactive learning experience designed for families with children.

With a strong educational flavour, it is a fun learning adventure that allows you to explore the wilderness, wildlife and authentic lifestyles of two of Africa's last remaining, fascinating tribes - the Maasai and the Samburu. Guided by the 'Moran', or warriors, you get to know, enjoy and understand these exceptional people and see the Kenyan wilderness from an extraordinary perspective - through the eyes of people who have called this wilderness their home for centuries.

Encounter Africa's storybook wildlife up close and refine your bush skills, as you study the giant crocodiles and hippos of the Mara River and track the enormous herds of Samburu elephant.

Explore the teeming open plains and forested valleys around Saruni Mara and the unending, rugged vistas of Saruni Samburu.

Discover the ancient wisdom of the Maasai and Samburu learning first hand about their customs and local knowledge of the animals and landscape, from traditional plants used for medicine to secret caves with rock paintings.

Experience original Maasai and Samburu villages - learn how to use bows, arrows and spears, and how to bead traditional artefacts whilst listening to tribal stories and songs.
