LOCATION

In the best wildlife area of Ruaha National Park, on the banks of the Ifiguru seasonal sand river.

ACCOMMODATION

Six large safari tents with comfortable beds, wide verandahs and thatch roofs. Traditional safari en-suite bathrooms with flush toilets and outdoor safari style bucket showers under the stars. Hot and cold water on demand and provided as and when requested. One large family tent with two en-suite tented bedrooms under one thatch roof.

CHILD POLICY

Children over the age of 8 at Kigelia Ruaha. Only children over 12yrs are allowed to take part in walking safaris.

ACTIVITIES

Game drives in open 4WD vehicles, walking safaris, night drives, sundowners and bush picnics.

HIGHLIGHTS

A remote park with fabulous game, particularly big cats, vast herds of elephant, greater & lesser kudu. Very few camps, wonderful scenery—including epic baobab trees studding the open plains. Open vehicles, walking safaris and great birding.

SEASONS

June to September; warm days and cool nights, almost cold, best time of year for walking safaris. Great elephant and buffalo sightings. October-November: heavy concentrations of game around the Ruaha and Mwangusi rivers, weather dry and hot in the day. December-Jan: prolific bird life, many animals calving, weather starts to get more humid, with possibility of rain.

GETTING THERE

Access to Kigelia Ruaha is via Msembe Airstrip in Ruaha National Park with free airstrip transfers. Daily flights between Ruaha, Selous, Dar (connecting onwards to Zanzibar and Mafia). Daily scheduled flights are also available connecting Ruaha with Arusha (and onward to Serengeti and Manyara). Twice weekly flights on Mondays & Thursdays connecting Ruaha with Katavi and Mahale.
