

A contemporary safari experience

Madikwe Game Reserve lies in the North-West province of South Africa, close to the Botswana border. The reserve is a world-renowned and exclusive Big 5 wilderness safari destination with conservation at the core, focusing on the preservation of endangered species.

MADIKWE GAME RESERVE

-  One of the largest yet lesser known game reserves: 77 000 ha / 770 km sq
-  Super Seven safari: the Big Five including cheetah & wild dog
-  Strong conservation ethos: pangolin, brown hyena, black & white rhino, wild dog, cheetah
-  Diversity of game: 86 mammal species
-  Bird lover's paradise: 350+ resident and migrant bird species
-  Easy access by road or air (OR Tambo or Lanseria airports): 4-4.5 hour drive from Johannesburg
-  Malaria-free: ideal for families
-  Abundance of fauna and flora: 104 tree species in the area & varied typography offers stunning, dramatic contrasts in scenery
-  Closed to outside visitors
-  Levies: NW Parks Board charges an entrance fee per person, collected at check-out, and a compulsory Rhino Conservation Levy which assists the reserve in its anti poaching efforts & empowering nearby communities
