WILD ANIMALS

Safaris in Africa entail a certain degree of risk. We advise our guests to always consult their guide before undertaking any activity that may bring them into an area populated by wild animals and all guests must adhere to the directions provided by their guide or tour leader and at each camp. Please be aware that these safaris may take guests into close contact with wild animals. Attacks by wild animals are rare, but no safari into the African wilderness can guarantee that this will not occur. To the extent permitted by law, neither The Safari Collection, nor its employees, nor its agents can be held responsible for any injury or incident on the safari.

TERMS & CONDITIONS

FORCE MAJEURE

For the purposes of these Terms and Conditions a “force majeure event” means any circumstance not within a party’s reasonable control including, without limitation: acts of God, flood, drought, earthquake or other natural disaster; epidemic or pandemic that attract travel restrictions or otherwise have significant effects on travel; terrorist attack, civil war, civil commotion or riots, war, threat of or preparation for war, armed conflict, imposition of sanctions, embargo, or breaking off of diplomatic relations; nuclear, chemical or biological contamination or sonic boom.

Except where otherwise expressly stated in these Terms and Conditions and having taken the necessary steps to meet its contractual obligations, The Safari Collection shall not accept liability or pay any refund or compensation where the performance or prompt performance of our contractual obligations is prevented or affected by the agent or where the guest otherwise suffers any damage or loss as a result of a force majeure event.

Where a force majeure event occurs which renders a tour impossible, illegal, or inadvisable, a guest may be entitled to cancellation of their tour/booking subject to the following terms (to the extent applicable):

- More than 120 days before arrival, the 30% deposit is refunded, net of bank/payment transaction/currency exchange charges and an admin fee of 3% of the booking value (applicable to both cancellations and deferrals). The Safari Collection will request the guest to consider acceptance of a non-refundable credit note valid for 24 months from the date of issue, acceptance of which will be at the guest’s discretion. The specific terms and conditions of the travel credit will be outlined in the travel credit note issued.
- Between 120 and 46 days prior to arrival, the 30% deposit will be held in the form of a non-refundable credit note valid for 24 months from the date of issue. Any further balance to be refunded will be net of bank/payment transaction/currency exchange charges.
- Between 45 days and 30 days, 50% of the full value will be held in the form of a non-refundable credit note valid for 24 months from the date of issue. The specific terms and conditions of the travel credit will be outlined in the travel credit note issued. Any further balance to be refunded will be net of bank/payment transaction/currency exchange charges.
- Less than 30 days, and no shows, leaving a tour before completion - 100% is forfeited, BUT The Safari Collection will supply the guest with a non-refundable credit note with a validity of 24 months that can be used against a future booking. The specific terms and conditions of the travel credit will be outlined in the travel credit note issued.
- No refund will be given for guests who join a tour but leave before its completion.

In order for the force majeure cancellation notice to be valid, notice must be provided to The Safari Collection in writing via email to info@thesafaricollection.com AND receipt of the cancellation must also be confirmed in writing by The Safari Collection. A credit note will only be issued where the required deposit threshold is met. Please contact The Safari Collection for any queries relating to this.

In addition to the above, The Safari Collection shall, subject to the Cancellation section above, have the right to itself cancel any tour or the remainder thereof or make any alteration in route, accommodation, price or other detail where force majeure event occurs. The Safari Collection shall also, where possible and available, maintain its discretion to allow for a modification on the confirmed booking to such a time in the future as may be convenient to both parties.

Subject to these terms, The Safari Collection may from time to time and at its sole discretion issue specific terms and conditions to apply in specific force majeure events, which will be included as an addendum to these Terms and Conditions. Notification of any variation will be provided.

Where a force majeure event occurs, we do ask that guests work with us as much as possible to find alternative travel dates. But, as a direct guest, cash refunds for COVID-19 cancellations (for example) will always be considered. If a cash refund is issued it will be minus bank/payment transaction/currency exchange charges and admin fee of 10% of the booking value. Cash refunds will be processed as quickly as possible, but please note that they will be prioritized in order of date of travel and not by cancellation date. *An official doctor’s note (verified, stamped and signed) and proof of residency will need to be supplied in order to be able to claim these amended terms.
