SAFARI UNLEASHED: YOUR GATEWAY TO ADVENTURE AND DISCOVERY!

A small, simple, naturally luxurious and authentic safari camp that pays homage to the days when exploring the African wilderness was a pioneering adventure.

In creating Bundox Explorer Camp on a private concession of the Olifants West section of the Greater Kruger's Olifants West Game Reserve, we addressed the questions of what makes a great safari great and what you really need when staying in the bush.

The answers speak for themselves... You need somewhere comfortable to sleep and tend to the daily functions of existence, good food, a place to relax and unwind, a method of cooling off in the summer heat, awesome views and excellent game viewing in a wilderness environment, and, finally, an amazing team of people to make you feel at home.

SEASONS & CLOTHING

- Spring: 1 September - 1 December
- Summer: December - 1 March
- Autumn: 1 March - 1 June
- Winter: 1 June - 1 September

Summer

Bring Clothes that are cool, light and comfortable because summer temperatures can get well into the 30- 40-degree Celsius range in some areas. Also, bring an umbrella or raincoat during summer as this is when most of the country gets its rain, but don't forget a swimming costume (bathing suit).

Winter

The winters are generally mild, comparing favourably with European summers. But there are days when temperatures dive, especially in high-lying areas such as the Drakensberg, so be prepared with jerseys and jackets. Cape Town gets its rain during the winter season so it's advisable to bring rain gear along.

General

Always bring a hat, sunglasses and sunblock as the sun can be strong even in the winter months. Walking shoes are a good idea all year round, with warm socks in the winter. If you are doing business in the country, business attire (suit and tie) is generally called for in the corporate sector, but media for example generally dress more casually. For game viewing, a couple of neutral-toned items will be useful, but there's no need to go overboard. A good pair of walking shoes is also advisable. For the evening, if you are dining at an upmarket restaurant or seeing a show, smart-casual attire is recommended.
