

USANGU EXPEDITION CAMP

RUAHA NATIONAL PARK

Set on the outskirts of the Usangu floodplains, deep in the remote southern corner of Ruaha National Park, Usangu Expedition Camp offers an immersive, conservation driven experience for the adventurous traveller. The camp offers a wide variety of included activities alongside access to ongoing research projects in the Douglas Bell Information Centre. For those looking to further enhance this unique experience, there are customised conservation activities tailored to specific interests. With six beautifully designed tents and full en suite facilities, Usangu Expedition Camp offers an intimate and unforgettably authentic safari experience.
