

Birds of a Feather

- 11 nights
- Kariba Gorge
- Hwange National Park
- Victoria Falls

TIP: PLAN EARLY

Overview

This incredible tour offers birding safaris in some spectacular areas within Zimbabwe. Kariba Gorge is a hidden gem when it comes to resident birds, as well as a myriad of migratory birds that descend into Southern Africa from August through to April, Hwange National Park and Victoria Falls are both so well known for their huge variety of raptors. With over 470 bird species, most of which are native, the region is teeming with feathered inhabitants that can be viewed during morning, afternoon and evening activities.

Day By Day

Day 1 -

Arrive Harare International Airport - collection in an airconditioned vehicle and taken to a luxury lodge in the leafy northern suburb of Borrowdale before heading on a private tour of Birds At Thirty, one of Southern Africa's largest bird sanctuaries - with over 180 different species from around the world, Birds at Thirty is focused on conservation, education, and environmental protection of our avian friends.
