KLEIN-AUS VISTA: GEISTERSCHLUCHT CABINS

3KM FROM AUS, HEADING TOWARDS LÜDERITZ

There is a touch of magic and intrigue at this rustic 'Ghost Canyon' cabin. Simplistic but exclusive as it hides in a secluded valley, where a rusty bullet-ridden Hudson greets you at the entrance road, a relic from a gunfight between diamond smugglers and police. Their ghosts are said to roam the valley in search of their lost diamonds. Further along the trail, a series of stone ramparts are visible from WWI days (1914-18), from when the German forces-built fortifications here in the Aus hills to make a stand against the South African Union soldiers.

The Geisterschlucht Cabin consists of two-family rooms sharing a bathroom, kitchen, and lounge area. Solar panels that charge batteries provide 220-volt light and outlets to charge devices but please note no hair dryer and electric kettle can be used. The two rooms each have two ¾ beds and one bunk bed each, sleeping a total of 4 persons per room with bedding provided. The bathroom has two organic toilets and two showers. The open plan kitchen and lounge area is equipped with a fridge/gas burner and an inside braai (barbecue) area with cutlery, crockery, pots, and pans provided. There is also an outside braai area to enjoy pleasant evenings around the fire.
