KRUGER'S HEARTBEAT: YOUR GATEWAY TO THE WILD, A TRUE SAFARI SANCTUARY

From the moment you arrive at Bundox Safari Lodge you can feel the outside world become more distant and muted and the sound of Africa welcoming you to a place where time has no meaning...

On its own private sanctuary on the edge of the Greater Kruger National Park, this is where pathways wind through a beautiful forest over low bridges, dappled by the light of the sun filtered through a million leaves.

The lodge is spread out on either side of a small, seasonal stream where antelope and other wildlife species live, moving silently through this haven that begs you to come and explore. Sparkling swimming pools beckon and shady nooks and crannies offer space to sit back, relax, switch off and unwind. Is this heaven? We think so!

Summer

Bring Clothes that are cool, light and comfortable because summer temperatures can get well into the 30-40-degree Celsius range in some areas. Also, bring an umbrella or raincoat during summer as this is when most of the country gets its rain, but don't forget a swimming costume (bathing suit).

Winter

The winters are generally mild, comparing favourably with European summers. But there are days when temperatures dive, especially in high-lying areas such as the Drakensberg, so be prepared with jerseys and jackets. Cape Town gets its rain during the winter season so it's advisable to bring rain gear along.

General

Always bring a hat, sunglasses and sunblock as the sun can be strong even in the winter months. Walking shoes are a good idea all year round, with warm socks in the winter. If you are doing business in the country, business attire (suit and tie) is generally called for in the corporate sector, but media for example generally dress more casually. For game viewing, a couple of neutral-toned items will be useful, but there's no need to go overboard. A good pair of walking shoes is also advisable. For the evening, if you are dining at an upmarket restaurant or seeing a show, smart-casual attire is recommended.
