

EOLO is a unique place in the world that combines the impressive nature of Southern Patagonia, an unbeatable location, the scenery, the luxury of simplicity with warm and professional care.
The hotel has 17 rooms, all with stunning views of the Patagonian steppe; its lakes, mountains and glaciers. There are several common areas: two living-rooms, library, TV room, bar, restaurant, indoor heated pool, dry saunas and massage room.

EOLO's cuisine is based on regional typical products combined with the best international techniques, achieving the best gourmet level in the area.
The lot where the lodge stands extends to 10.000 acres, allowing to fully experience the vastness of Patagonia and enjoy our exclusive activities: trekking, mountain biking and horseback riding.

Los Glaciares National Park, home to one of the most striking marvels of the world, is only a few minutes away, and was declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO.
