WITHIN OUR WALLS

- Explore our vegetable garden, home to greenhouses and a prickly pear orchard.
- Our chefs will prepare a picnic for you to enjoy within the grounds. Tour the gardens and discover local varieties of herbs – select your favorites and we'll serve them up as a refreshing tisane.
- Join our dedicated workers at feeding time at the local farm or head to our trout pond and catch your dinner.
- Soak up views of the Andean terraces from our free-form swimming pool built using Colca Valley stone – a book from our inviting library makes for good company.
- Should children be staying with you, they can try activities such as outdoor painting, farm visits and cookie baking lessons.

OUT & ABOUT

- Order a picnic from the hotel kitchen, grab a map and discover a wealth of pre-Incan history.
- Embark on fabulous walks directly from the hotel – there are routes available for all abilities. Follow the condors to a viewpoint high in the valley for dramatic panoramas of the unique landscape.
- Discover colcas hewn into the valley walls or navigate beautiful villages. It's here you'll likely meet the canyon's welcoming residents dressed in vibrant, elaborate embroidery.
- Uncover the secrets of the canyon by bike or traverse high ridges in true Peruvian style – on horseback.

BEYOND COLCA CANYON

A short journey from Las Casitas, catch the Andean Explorer, South America's first luxury sleeper train, which carries guests across the breathtaking Andes to Puno and Cusco.

In Cusco, sister hotels Monasterio and Palacio Nazarenas sit atop ancient Inca ruins. Inland, Rio Sagrado is tucked in the Sacred Valley, home to rare wildlife. Sanctuary Lodge is uniquely positioned at the entrance of Machu Picchu. Board the Hiram Bingham train for a spectacular journey to its gates.

In cosmopolitan Lima, Miraflores Park perches on the Pacific seafloor.

GETTING MARRIED IN PERU

Non-resident foreigners can get married in Peru. There are three main steps before a marriage can go ahead:

- Registration of the intent to marry and presentation of the documents
- Publication of the banns
- Issue of marriage license

Couples that wish to travel to Arequipa to marry will need to have the following documents certified at the Peruvian Consulate in their home country:

- Original birth certificate
- Proof of single status
- Proof of residence in their country (utility bills)
- Photocopy of passport

All documents need to be apostilled or authenticated at the Peruvian embassy/consulate.

ELIGIBLE WEDDING LOCATIONS

The marriage ceremony can take place anywhere, as long as the local registry office has been informed of the address, date and time, and has agreed to send an official to conduct the ceremony.

OUR SUGGESTIONS:

- Our Lady of the Assumption Chapel adjacent to the hotel – for up to 30 guests.
- Space at the hotel – 100 guests.
