with our tour!

Our tour offers a great experience for both national and international tourists, showing Costa Rican culture and highlighting the country's main agricultural products.

The tour begins with a fascinating journey through coffee, sugarcane, pineapple, and corn plantations. During this experience, visitors will have the opportunity to immerse themselves in a small and charming forest, where they can admire a variety of insects, enjoy the beauty of a spring, and delight in the view of a picturesque lake.

Furthermore, we have a cozy sugarcane mill, where our experts will explain in detail the exciting process of extracting sugarcane juice. Customers will have the chance to participate in this activity and taste the delicious fresh juice that results.

Once we arrive at the ranch, our friendly guide will provide a unique experience: guests will learn how to make their own chocolate from scratch. Starting with roasting the cocoa, visitors can discover the art of peeling the seeds and then grinding them, creating an exquisite paste that will bring their own personalized chocolate truffle to life. After completing this exciting activity, our guide will give a demonstration of the coffee grinding process, providing detailed explanations. Customers will also have the opportunity to prepare their own cup of coffee using the traditional "pour-over/drip" method and enjoy it alongside a delicious "chorreada" snack.

To conclude the visit, there will be a presentation of various ornamental plants found on the ranch, as well as a display of some medicinal plants and their benefits. Among the showcased varieties are lemon grass, rosemary, oregano, linden, and cinnamon, among others, each with its unique and functional properties.
