Experience the Kenya of your dreams – the Kenya that has given rise to a million travel bucket lists. The Mara is the Africa you see when you close your eyes and imagine your next safari. This very special region is iconic in every way, from the landscapes to the wildlife. And then there's the Great Wildebeest Migration which – during certain months – sees literally hundreds of thousands of antelope trek across the plains.

The Mara is also home to the Maasai, one of the most recognisable of all African tribal groups, and our partners in conservation.

Choose to follow our suggested safari (as outlined below), featuring the very best of Saruni Basecamp experiences, or ask our team to adjust the programme to your specific preferences and create your perfect tailor-made safari experience, far from the beaten path.
