Being together in the wilderness is a deeply romantic experience, and time spent away from it all is the perfect antidote to the pressure of wedding planning.

No matter how long you've been married, a Kenyan safari holiday is the perfect way to celebrate your love, and reconnect in meaningful ways.

Each day is punctuated with beautiful moments that are even more magical when you share them with the one you love: sunrises, sunsets, endless views...

Coffee around the fire, sundowners, time spent with incredible wildlife and feeling more alive than you ever have before... it all adds up to a remarkable, unforgettable honeymoon.

Like all our suggested safaris, this honeymoon safari can be customised to meet your specific requirements, and tailored to focus on your interests. Talk to our journey specialists about changing or extending this itinerary to create a Kenyan safari that's as unique as your love for each other – perhaps by adding a few nights in a beach villa.
