

Ashbourne House

GUESTHOUSE

Tim's and Nadine's very personal recommendations.

Within walking distance

Contemporary South African cooking. Very convenient location, just 2 minutes from Ashbourne House. Have improved significantly over the last months. Maybe not the greatest place to sit outside, but worth a visit.

Le Bon Vivant International and Contemporary, rather fine dining. Eat in the garden on a balmy evening. Excellent meat. Lunch & Dinner. Closed on Wednesdays.

On top of the tripadvisor classification. Located on Main Road. Very friendly service, outstanding food. One of our favorites. Reservations are a must.

Slightly off Main Road, Café' des Arts is the place where the locals go. Simple cooking but good quality. Easy going and good vibrations. Good fresh fish. Open for breakfast, lunch and dinner.

Some mixed feelings about this restaurant. While you sometimes get the impression that Reuben Riffel should spend more time in his restaurant, the food is still very good.

Restaurants that require a short drive

Just around the corner – but slightly too far to walk. Up in the mountains with spectacular views of the Franschhoek valley and amazing sunsets. Perfect place for a romantic sundowner on the large terrace. Good restaurant, great views.

Appx. 3 min. drive from Ashbourne House.

Stunning views and very (!) good food. Open for lunch only. An all time favorite. Although the restaurant is rather big, it is absolutely necessary to make a reservation.

The little sister of Le Bon Vivant in the village. A hidden gem. Although only a few minutes away from Franschhoek, this place feels like a different planet. The beauty of the scenery is overwhelming, a few km on a dirt road make it even more spectacular. Good food on a small menu. Not quite up to the quality of Le Bon Vivant in the Franschhoek. Lunch only.

Continental style food & tasting menu with wines. Lunch outside in the pretty garden with many fountains that cover the outside noise; Dinner in small intimate dining rooms. Just out of the village; offer free shuttle

Beautiful old Wine Estate. Lunch and dinner, excellent quality and very good service. There is even a hiking trail if you feel like doing some serious walking. One of our favorite places.
