KALAHARI

Feline Fields Lodge

Your home away from home

In the midst of the endless Kalahari, discover a secluded retreat offering the finest levels of comfort and extraordinary warm service. Guests of Feline Fields Lodge are left in awe of the untouched beauty of its surroundings. Crafted from the Earth, this stylish home leaves its unforgettable mark on all those who visit. This undiscovered region welcomes just a handful of visitors each year, making it an ideal destination for those seeking a very private and peaceful African escape. The main lodge boasts a contemporary lounge overlooking an inviting twenty-five meter pool. Designed without walls to bring the Kalahari closer, guests dine on the raised deck which frames uninterrupted views of the savannah. Indulgent meals created by the talented chef combine freshly prepared produce with a taste of Africa. The local wine selection is hand-picked by the owner. A welcoming bar, a library wing and decked lapa seating around a warming fire complete this desert haven.

The Pool Suite

Three luxury two-storey Pool Suites are built upon raised platforms, with a spacious upper deck offering all-encompassing views of the bush. Guests sleep cooled by the Kalahari breeze and wake to splendid African sunrises. The lounge has a relaxing daybed which can be used as a further sleeping area for children, while the sumptuous bathroom is the perfect place to relax or refresh after a day in the savannah. Relax and unwind from the intimacy of the suite's galleried lounge, whilst being cooled by a soft breeze. A private pool completes these stunning homes away from home.

The Family Villa

The very roomy Family Villa, perfect for a family getaway or even two couples, overlooks the pristine wilderness of the Kalahari savannah. From inside the villa enjoy a panoramic view through the transparent netting which also creates a natural flow of air to the private lounge and bedrooms.

Under expansive canopies are two bedrooms each with twin beds which can be made as an extra king size bed. Each bed is surrounded by billowing linen mosquito nets.

There are also two en-suite bathrooms with double basins, massage shower and toilet. The villa boasts a huge deck made from sustainable wood overlooking a private pool from which you can relax during the day or gaze up at the African night sky, ablaze with a million stars.

The Bush Suite

The three spacious Bush Suites are light and airy, raised more than a metre off the ground on beautiful decks made from sustainable wood with an open-air bathtub. The Bush Suites are located along the northern shore of a wooded island overlooking an ephemeral pan. Each bush suite has twin beds which can be made as a double bed in need and a luxurious en-suite bathroom.

Explore the Kalahari

Venture into the heart of the Kalahari by open safari vehicles, partaking in beautiful desert drives in the morning or evening at guests' leisure. The vast Kalahari plains can also be enjoyed on horseback, on foot or by sand-bike. A full range of sports and wellness facilities is available to guests at Feline Fields Lodge. Invigorate the body at the open-air, well-equipped bush gym or dive into the refreshing twenty-five meter lap pool. Alternatively, guests may take advantage of the tennis court crafted from old termite mounds, creating a red clay effect, or practice their golf swing on the driving range.

You can also relax on your rooftop lounge, cooled by a gentle breeze, and luxuriate in one of our special spa treatments or massages. Enjoy the traditional trance dance of the San Bushmen and learn about their way of life in harmony with nature. Journey to the ancient Gwihaba Caves, a World Heritage site, and the richest cave fossil deposit in Botswana. For the more adventurous, experience a real wilderness adventure, sleeping out under the African sky glittering with a billion stars.

Embark on an adventure alongside the Kalahari Bushmen

Strap on your walking shoes and roam back to the ancient San Bushmen! Accompanied throughout by your translator guide, guests have the opportunity to meet the San people and witness their unchanged, nomadic way of life in harmony with the earth, as they tread along paths untamed animals roam free on. Meeting the Bushmen is a unique opportunity to engage with them and learn all about their survival skills, food preparation and cultural norms. Follow these ancient nomadic hunters into the pristine and untamed Kalahari Desert and gain insight into the culture and time-honored traditions of the oldest inhabitants of Southern Africa. A veritable step back in time, walking alongside the Bushmen is an authentic cultural journey in the heart of the Kalahari that reveals the untold world of these charismatic people.

Spend a night under a canopy of stars

After a beautiful dinner lit by a roaring campfire, rest for the night in mosquito net tents kitted out with real mattresses and duvets. Spending the night in the heart of the Kalahari, falling asleep admiring the stars nestled in a comfortable bed, lulled by birdsong is the ultimate in romance. It is a unique and exhilarating experience that allows you to fully connect with Nature. In the morning, as dawn approaches, the stars gradually disappear and the birds begin to stir as the first rays of sunlight appear over the Kalahari dunes, gently waking you up and realizing where you are.

OKAVANGO

Feline Fields Vintage Camp

A private camp on the river bank

Featuring remote location, complete privacy and dedicated staff catering to all their needs, Feline Fields Vintage Camp provides the perfect setting for guests to connect with nature. The focus is blending into the environment with the camp geared towards an eco-friendly use of the natural environment. Wildlife sightings are excellent with the wildlife being more comfortable around the smaller scale of a mobile tented camp. The intimate bush camp allows you to immerse yourself in the African bush, uninterrupted by the distractions of the modern world. During the warm afternoons relax lounging on the floor cushions and carpets of the tea tent. A luxury tented mobile safari in Khwai gives you the experience of the African bush like the explorers of yester-year.

The scenic Khwai Concession lies adjacent to Moremi Game Reserve along the banks of the Khwai River. The river, the only source of water, attracts wildlife from all around leading to superb game viewing. This community-run reserve enjoys a diverse ecosystem with lagoons scattered across the grassy plains and forest areas. Known for its high concentration of predators, Khwai also hosts elephant, buffalo, zebra, hippo, eland and much more.

Spacious and romantic tents

The seven spacious and romantic bell tents (5m diameter) have comfortable double or twin beds, with real duvets, pillows and mattresses. Each tent is furnished with carpets on the floor, hanging canvas shelves and bedside tables with small solar lanterns. In winter, there is a small gas heater for chilly mornings. All tents have an en-suite bathroom with a copper basin, flushing toilet and a large bucket shower, filled each morning with warm water. In front of the tent is a seligna wooden deck, with two comfortable safari-style chairs. A copper basin in front of the tent is filled in the early morning with warm water so you can refresh yourself before the early morning game drive.

Immersive safari of unmatched elegance

The wildlife sightings at Khwai are truly extraordinary and is the focus of the Feline Fields tented safari experience. A typical day starts by heading out for a morning game drive after an early breakfast. Return to camp for a freshly prepared brunch. After a bush tea, head out again for the evening game drive. In the evening relax around the campfire with an aperitif before ending the day with a wholesome bush dinner. While in Khwai, you'll discover the richest wildlife in Africa, including elephants, giraffes, leopards, buffaloes and wildebeest.

We have among our team some of the best guides in the region. You will not miss any of the nature and wild animals that surround you. A trip to Khwai also offers exceptional bird-watching opportunities, especially to see waterfowl and birds of prey. At dawn and sundown when the animals are still most active, you'll have the choice of viewing wildlife either from a 4x4 or by mokoro, all accompanied by rangers. Two totally different, yet equally memorable experiences.

Activities

Feline Fields Vintage Camp offers a wide range of activities for guests to enjoy. One of the main highlights is the opportunity to explore the Khwai river in a traditional mokoro. Accompanied by professional polers, guests can glide along the river for two hours, immersing themselves in the serene surroundings. Additionally, guests can also enjoy a safari boat cruise and catch and release fishing. In between thrilling game drives, guests have the chance to relax in a wooden hot tub and indulge in a massage with essential oils. For those seeking a more intimate experience with the wilderness, Feline Fields offers walking safaris led by armed guides. This unique opportunity allows guests to slow down and truly appreciate the smaller details often missed while seated in a game vehicle. Guests can stroll along ancient wildlife paths and gain insights into the fascinating world of insects, birds, trees, and bees from our knowledgeable guides. Encountering majestic giraffes or curious zebras on foot is sure to create lasting memories that will last forever.

SUSTAINABILITY

Our Engagement

In harmony with Nature

A Feline Fields' operation has been thoughtfully planned to be as environmentally sensitive as possible. Feline Fields Lodge operates in harmony with its surroundings with architecture designed for energy and ecological conservation, materials from low energy and renewable sources coupled with operational practices for efficient energy and water usage. In keeping with Feline Fields' objective of reducing energy consumption and fossil fuel use, the very latest in solar energy technology has been installed. Grey water is treated and used for the bird baths and waterholes. Water is filtered by a UF system which enables zero waste water.

Feline Fields Vintage Camp has been designed to have the lightest possible footprint on the ecosystem. The natural environment is left untouched and undisturbed with zero pollution - everything is taken away after each safari. Lighting is provided by lanterns powered by bio paraffin or solar energy.

Travel information

Power

There is solar electricity throughout the lodge. To charge any devices at The Lodge, an adaptor for a round 3 pin plug is required. If you are on a mobile safari expedition, bring a 12 volt car charger.

Health

There is malaria in Botswana so we recommend precautions be taken. Please consult your doctor. Be mindful of the fact that some medications can cause reactions to the sun. The water in Botswana is safe to drink. Filtered and bottled water is provided by The Lodge. There are basic first aid kits in the lodge. We have medical evacuation insurance in case of emergencies.

Gratuities / tipping

Tipping is by no means compulsory, however if guests do wish to tip for good service the staff are always grateful. We recommend the following (as a guideline):

For camp staff: US$10.00 per person, per day. To be given to the manager, hostess or guide for distribution.

For your guide: US$10.00 per person, per day.

Visas and entry requirements

Visitors from the European Union, most Commonwealth countries and the USA do not require visas for a stay of less than 90 days. All visitors are required to carry a passport that is valid for six months beyond the intended length of stay, with sufficient blank pages for entry stamps.

Wild animals

Our safaris may bring you into close contact with wild animals, and whilst attacks are extremely rare, we encourage you to listen to your guide and take the necessary precautions.

Travel and medical insurance

All visitors should carry comprehensive travel and medical insurance. We have to charge cancellation fees as per our stated policy, no matter the reason for the cancellation.

Dietary requirements

Please inform Feline Fields of any dietary requirements and allergies before travel. Please confirm these with the manager in camp.
