

Gareth Flemix

Gareth is a conservationist and believes in the value of protecting Africa's wilderness. He believes that eco-tourism is just one way of ensuring the future of borderless wildlife. After living and working in the lowveld, Gareth decided to look for newer, wilder grounds and moved to Botswana, where he joined Kwando Safaris and managed Lebala Camp, Linyanti for 3 years. While there Gareth also took up filming, pursuing another passion in his life. In 2006 Gareth started a production and photographic company, Go-Lingo Creations based in Maun, taking wildlife filming and photographic safaris. During this period Gareth, now a qualified specialist guide had the opportunity to lead other safaris beyond Botswana's borders in the African countries of CAR, Cameroon, Rwanda, Zambia, Madagascar, Mozambique, Zimbabwe, Tanzania and Kenya. Gareth has experience in guiding not only photographic safaris, but is also qualified to do horseback safaris, canoeing safaris, conservation education orientated safaris and specialized photographic safaris. Additionally, he has acted as the lead guide and safety officer for focused filming shoots. Since 2016, Gareth has managed and runs his own company, Walk Botswana Safaris with his wife Robyn, a mobile safari company specialized in walking. Walk Botswana Safaris operates across Botswana and currently manages their own concessions in the Kgalagadi comprising of over 20,000 square kilometers of pure wilderness.

Walk Botswana Safaris is a small family business that runs the more adventurously styled safaris such as walking safaris, as well as tailor made specialized photographic mobile safaris in Botswana. Gareth loves to share his expansive knowledge and zest for the bush and you will be amazed at just how much you learn from him in just a few days. But it's not all work with Walk Botswana Safaris, so be prepared to be entertained for hours, smiling and laughing your way through each day. These characteristics together with his warm personality and attention to detail, make him a fantastic guide and host, ensuring the experience of a lifetime that will leave you wanting to come back for more.

Gareth is a dedicated family man and he spends any days he is not in the bush, or preferably in the bush, with his wife and kids doing what they love the most.
