Luggage	Item
	Eagle Creek Load Warrior Carry-On which is 14"x22"x9". (Or similar) 42L capacity, expanded 45.5L. Only allowed 33 lbs of soft-sided luggage on small planes. Wheels allowed.
	You are allowed a backpack which is the smaller bag above. I can fit my laptop easily and I use both as carry-on on the international flights.
	Baggalini Crossbody Purse. I keep all my credit cards, passport, cash and other important documents here. Also sunblock, lip balm, small flashlight. The straps have metal mesh inside, so keep the bag safe. I also take it with me on game drives, and everywhere I go, so I don't leave anything valuable in my room. It's the perfect size and has compartments for credit cards.

Plugs for Africa

4pcs AFRICA Adapter Pack

I love these plug adapters as you can use 2-items in one adaptor. You can buy all the plugs you need on Amazon.

As you can see, these 4 adaptors are for South Africa, Kenya, Tanzania, Botswana, Zambia, Zimbabwe, Uganda, Namibia, Rwanda.

I think the price of all four is well worth it, and they are sturdy compared to some of the other adapters I've bought.

Clothes

The best colors are mainly sand, Khaki, greens, and beiges. Comfortable walking shoes, gym shoes OK. Dress in layers as it can be cold on early morning game drives. No bright colors like red, blue, turquoise, bright yellow or orange. Just Safari colors.

You can find them at REI, Rootens, Amazon as well.
