Introduction

Our South Africa Wildlife safari covers two of the country's most popular areas – Cape Town and the Greater Kruger National Park. Indeed, these areas are quite different to each other and offer a nice contrast. The Cape Town area offers mountain and sea views at every turn. Moreover, the Greater Kruger offers a classic African safari experience. Combine the two and you literally have the best of South Africa in an 11-day tour! To sum it up, this wildlife safari takes in the best of the two regions' natural history, giving you an exciting, varied and rewarding South African holiday experience.

Areas covered

Our South African Wildlife safari starts of in Cape Town. After three nights in Simon's Town we then move to Hermanus, famous for its whale viewing. After that we then drive back to Cape Town for a regional flight to the Kruger National Park. The safari starts here and we visit three different camps as we make our way northwards. From there we end off at a private lodge in the Sabi Sand Game Reserve. This is the highlight of the tour in many ways. Participants will then get a transfer to one of the regional airports for a flight back to Johannesburg.

Accommodation

The accommodation is of a medium-plus to high standard. It includes a B&B, a hotel, national park's chalets and private lodge chalets. Importantly, all accommodations have en-suite facilities, and are clean and comfortable.

The mammals

The variety of species to be seen on this South Africa Wildlife safari is remarkable. Firstly, while the Cape no longer has the mega-fauna component it once did, there are some interesting species to see. These may include Bontebok, Cape Mountain Zebra, Red Hartebeest, Cape Grysbok for example, and maybe even Caracal with a bit of luck. Southern Right Whales should be common in the inshore waters. Other Cetaceans may include Bryde's and Humpback Whales and several Dolphin species. Kruger and Sabi Sands will then deliver the megafauna – in abundance! Elephants, Buffalo and Giraffe are common. And of course we'll be on the lookout for the big predators – Lion, Leopard, Cheetah, Wild Dog and Spotted Hyena. In between all of these we'll see a host of antelope species, primates, mongooses and other interesting species. Indeed, South Africa wildlife viewing is top class in all respects.

The birding

Birds are not the main focus of this South Africa wildlife safari. However, we can't ignore some of the more impressive feathered fauna. Consequently, we'll no doubt show you some fantastic birds such as: Martial Eagle, Bateleur, White-fronted Bee-eater, Lilac-breasted Roller and others, sticking to the big, colourful and photogenic species.

Group size

Maximum of 10 participants; 5 participants per vehicle / guide

Expected weather conditions

The Cape's weather is notoriously variable and September is within the winter rainfall period. Some rain can be expected, while fine and warm conditions are also expected. In the Kruger it should be dry and warm, but early morning drives in open vehicles can be cold, so adequate clothing such as a thick fleece and windbreaker are recommended. In conclusion, this South Africa wildlife itinerary offer a great introduction to the country. It'll showcase two of the prime travel and wildlife areas. And once you've done it you can say you've seen the main parts of South Africa, but you'll probably want to come back to see more of South Africa's wonders!

Day Itinerary

Note: participants should overnight in Cape Town on the 4th Sep at own cost (we recommend a few nights in Cape Town to see the city and cultural / general tourist highlights), or arrive on early morning flights on the 5th Sep. Later arrivals on the 5th Sep may result in additional transfer costs. Please consult us about appropriate flights.

After arriving at Cape Town International we'll drive onto the Cape Peninsula, a large rocky piece of land thrusting out into the ocean to form the south-western tip of the African continent, separating False Bay from the Atlantic Ocean (contrary to popular belief the Indian and Atlantic Oceans do not meet here). En-route we'll stop at Kirstenbosch National Botanical Gardens on the slopes of Table Mountain, where we will spend the afternoon looking at the birds and flowers (this is a superb venue for photography) and enjoying the fantastic scenery. The following day we will have an opportunity to visit the famous African Penguin colony at Boulder's Beach and will then explore Cape Point before returning to our guest house. Other attractions we'll fit in include Table Mountain and Chapman's Peak drive, one of South Africa's most scenic road routes, and perhaps have a visit to one of the area's famous wineries.

Simon's Town

Perched on a steep slope along the shores of False Bay, Simon's Town is renowned as one of South Africa's oldest settlements. Just 35km from Cape Town, this enchanting locale boasts a rich maritime legacy and houses the South African Navy. The town's quaint streets showcase a blend of Victorian and Georgian-style residences, reflecting its colonial heritage. Dive into the deep seas with a variety of fishing experiences or marvel at the free-roaming African penguins at Boulders Beach, adding to the town's unique charm. Embark on a boat journey to Seal Island, an eight-nautical-mile voyage from Simon's Town harbour, home to a vast colony of Cape Fur Seals and a prime hunting ground for Great White Sharks. Wind down by strolling along the boardwalks, dip in the sandy public beach, indulge in a day spa in the Old Village, or savour fresh seafood in one of the town's outstanding restaurants.

We'll stop off at the Stony Point Penguin colony, which is larger in area than the Boulder's Beach colony and usually less crowded in terms of tourists, and the Harold Porter National Botanical Gardens for some lunch and a stroll. We'll then continue on to Hermanus, one of the world's best land-based whale watching destinations. ## Day 9-11: Tuesday, 14 October to Thursday, 16 October

Elephant Plains Game Lodge, Sabi Sand Nature Reserve

Day Itinerary

After a last morning drive and breakfast, we'll pack and depart for the adjacent Sabi Sand Game Reserve, a 160 000 acre private conservancy which is open to and contiguous with the Kruger National Park. This means that animals are free to roam throughout the area, making for authentic game viewing. Here we'll have morning and afternoon game drives in open safari vehicles, where the focus will be on encounters with some of Africa's big cat species, the reserve boasting what must be some of Africa's best big cat viewing, especially when it comes to the usually elusive Leopard. Game walks are an additional activity, while fine dining and accommodation will augment the experience to create what will arguably be the highlight of this wonderful wildlife tour. We should arrive in time to settle in before lunch, after which we'll have our first afternoon / evening game drive, returning for time to freshen up before dinner. On each full day we'll have an early morning game drive, followed by breakfast and an optional bush walk, time to rest in camp, followed by lunch and the afternoon / evening drive once again, ending off with dinner around the open fire.

Expert Tips

Bush walks are undertaken under the leadership of an armed guide and a tracker. The main point is not to see big game, as this is more easily done in the vehicle, but rather to get closer to the ground and learn about the smaller life forms, tracks and signs, birds and their nests and the general ecology. However, encounters with potentially dangerous game are possible, even if not actually sought out. The guides are trained to deal with such animals, but there are rare occasions when 'evasive action' is required, which may entail climbing trees, or running to the nearest cover. If you are not physically able to undertake such action, it might be better to not partake in the bush walk. Participation is also at the discretion of the lodge guide who will be leading the walk.

Sabi Sand Nature Reserve

Adjacent to the Kruger National Park, the Sabi Sand Private Game Reserve is a private premier game viewing destination. It was the first ever private nature reserve established in South Africa. The landscape features 65 000 hectares of savannah-covered land interspersed with watering holes, dry riverbeds, lowveld woodlands, and the perennial Sabi and Sand rivers. This spectacular reserve offers exceptional game viewing opportunities with frequent sightings of the renowned Big Five as well as Cheetah, Zebra, Giraffe, and a variety of antelope. Visitors can enjoy excellent wildlife viewing, dining under the stars, guided bush walks and enjoying a stay in some of South Africa's most luxurious safari lodges.

Overnight: Elephant Plains Game Lodge View iBrochure

Situated in the Sabi Sand Game Reserve, adjacent to the Kruger National Park, Elephant Plains Game Lodge offers comfortable, stylish and affordable luxury. Elephant Plains is world-renowned for excellent game viewing and guests can enjoy two game drives and a bush walk per day.
