

SRI LANKA

Accommodation & Tour Highlights

All hotels are of a 4-star standard and most have swimming pools. The Grand Hotel in Nuwara Eliya is a typical turn of the century British Colonial Hotel with a nearby golf course and a bracing hill station climate.

Senior Tour Manager, Margaret Freebairn, will escort the tour. She has previously escorted more than 100 tours worldwide including Africa, India, Sri Lanka and Australia.

In the event of a particular hotel not being available, it will be substituted for a similar hotel of equal standard.

Perahera Festival

The Perahera Festival, which is regarded as Asia's greatest pageant, has been celebrated since 310AD on the first full moon in August. During the Festival, which commemorates the arrival of Buddhism in Sri Lanka, more than 80 colourfully decorated elephants are paraded through the streets of Kandy.

Journeys Worldwide obtains excellent seats to view the procession, which takes place at night.

Credit Cards & Deposits

The tour deposit of $300.00 can be paid by credit card but the balance of the arrangements must be paid by cash, cheque or direct bank transfer. Payment by credit card will attract a surcharge.

Visas

A visa is required for Sri Lanka. This can be obtained online without any difficulty.

Travel Insurance

Travel Insurance is essential and a special travel insurance policy has been arranged to cover the duration of the tour. For a quotation please contact our office.

Reservations & Documentation

In order to make a reservation, the company requires a non-refundable deposit of $300.00 per person and the balance is due 60 days prior to departure. Upon receipt of the deposit tour members will be sent an invoice as well as a Booking Form which must be completed, signed and returned to the company.

All tour members will be provided with a wallet and pre-departure information.
