

Travelling with your own car to Oslo Norway

Since 2020 the way we used to travel has changed. We realize that travelling with your own car and skipping flights, will become more popular, therefore we have worked out the route by car to Oslo, coming from central Europe.

The most affordable way is with the Stenaline from Kiel in Northern Germany to Gothenburg in Sweden. This ferry leaves Kiel in the evening and arrives next morning in Gothenburg. The good news is that this ferry ride for you and your car always includes accommodation on board during the transfer.

Tips for travellers coming from other European countries

Hamburg is a fantastic city, why not spend one or two nights here, before you board the Stenaline in Kiel?

HAMBURG

Resting on the southern point of the Jutland Peninsula, the historic port city of Hamburg certainly lives up to its reputation as Germany's 'gateway to the world'. It is the country's biggest port and the second-busiest in Europe, despite being located astride the River Elbe, some 100 km from the North Sea. Hamburg's maritime spirit infuses the entire city; from architecture to menus to the cry of gulls, you always know you're near the water. Spend your days sampling some delicious local food served in a diverse range of fine restaurants, party all night at one of the trendy upmarket nightclubs, or enjoy a relaxing picnic on the banks one of the lovely inner city lakes. With its abundance of renowned museums and art galleries, its astonishing variety of luxurious theatres, excellent music venues and a world-class ballet company, Hamburg has more than enough cultural interest to keep even the most avid culture enthusiast blissfully engaged.

If you have plenty time on your hands, you can combine our Northern Germany tour that ends in Hamburg with this tour to Norway.
