Terms & Conditions

General: Safariline, Ltd., (hereinafter referred to as "Safariline") acts solely as the agent for the client in all respects.

Responsibility: It is clearly understood that Safariline acts only as agent for the passengers and books transportation, accommodation, restaurant, adventure activities and other related travel services and assumes no responsibility, howsoever caused, for personal injury, damage, loss, accident, expense, delay, act of God or military action beyond their control. Travelers bookings are accepted by Safariline as agent for the independent operators and the services provided by these operators are offered subject to the terms and conditions contained in the tickets, exchange orders or vouchers issued by them and/or their suppliers. Though Safariline has made every attempt to choose the best suppliers available it has no control over their operators procedures and can not be liable for any personal injury or property damage which may occur whether this is caused by wrongful, negligent or arbitrary acts, omissions on the part of a supplier, its employees and others not under the direct control of Safariline. The passenger ticket issued by the airline carrier is the sole contract between the passenger and the carrier. Safariline is not responsible for unexpected transportation delays and changes, nor liable for additional expenses or loss of time that may be incurred. The onus is upon the guest to ensure that passports and visas are valid for the countries visited. Safariline shall not be responsible for any inadvertent errors on their website, listed in their brochure or other descriptive material. On advancement of deposit the depositors agree to be bound by the terms and conditions here mentioned.

Liability: As Safariline deals predominantly with third world countries which can experience problems such as vehicle breakdowns, lack of supplies (including fuel and spare parts) as well as drought and unusual conditions, Safariline can not be held responsible if the countries internal infrastructure causes adverse affects. Nor if these affects cause the ground operator from delivering the usual standard of service. While Safariline has made every attempt to retain the services of reliable trustworthy ground handlers, they can not be held liable for any routine or extraordinary variations to any tour or other problems which may arise. Safaris are by their nature adventure holidays where changes in the details and timing of an itinerary can vary depending on conditions prevailing and facilities available. Please be aware that these safaris may take you into close contact with wild animals. Attacks by wild animals are rare, but no safari into the African wilderness can guarantee this will not occur. Neither the company, nor their employees, nor agents can be held responsible for any injury or incident on the safari.

Insurance : Safariline requires all clients to purchase minimum travel protection insurance coverage. Clients residing outside the USA must purchase independent travel insurance and provide proof of coverage.

Booking Procedures & Payment Terms At time of confirmation 25% of the land tour cost is due with this completed signed tour registration form.
