5/5

Stefano Sartoretti
SVP & CFO, PepsiCo

Visited Castello di Ugento in early July with family. We were extremely pleased with the beauty of the site. Rooms were very comfortable, spacious, cleaned every day, equipped with sizable baths, flat TVs, filled fridges...extremely relaxing and peaceful. The restaurant was a class by itself, with high quality food mostly prepared with ingredients sourced from their own gardens. Service at the main desk and at the restaurant was also of high quality, very personal, always helpful in answering all questions and proactively engaging. Castello di Ugento is unique, provides a different one-off experience as it is filled with peace, relaxation, privacy, personalized high-quality service and structure.
