

Bolivian Tourist Visa

Required items you need to bring to buy the Bolivian Tourist Visa for US Citizens here at the Airport in Santa Cruz City:

1. Complete the Sworn Statement for Visa Application.
2. Original Valid Passport.
3. Printed Reservation Letter from the lodge indicating the host address and dates in the country.
4. Printed copy of round trip itinerary.
5. Visa fee: US$ 160.00 (Credit card preferred.)
6. 2 Printed copies of passport.
7. Any printed proof of economic solvency (e.g., any Credit Card statement with account number blacked out)

In the immigrations area in Santa Cruz, there is a kiosk expressly for Visa procurement. You merely present them with the paperwork, required documentation, and $160.00 in USD and they will issue the 10-year visa on the spot.

When you get off the plane, just get in the normal immigration line. (Please note, this process could take upwards of an hour at the airport so try and de-plane as soon as possible to get in line.) Once you get to the agent, you just need to tell him that you plan to get your visa upon arrival. He will direct you to the nearby kiosk where the visas are done. Once you have the visa done, they will take you right back to the front of the immigrations line to get finished up.

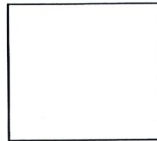

In the past, you went to the visa line first and then to immigration, but now, you first need to go to immigration and they will direct you over to the visa kiosk, which is approximately 30 feet away. The baggage area is immediately behind the immigration area. After you collect your things, exit the arrival terminal and the outfitter or a member of his staff will be there to greet you.
