A TENTED ADVENTURE AWAITS

Views. They're something that turn an ordinary safari experience into something extraordinary, especially when they involve the unique combination of permanently flowing water slicing through a pristine African wilderness. At Bundox River Lodge, the views over the omnipresent Olifants River create pure safari magic... This is unplugged Africa at its best!

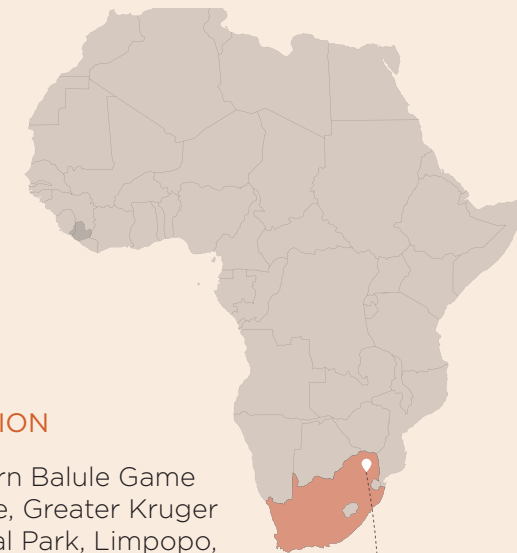

Perched on a gentle bend in the perennial Olifants River in the far north of the Balule Game Reserve, this brand-new tented camp has breathtaking upstream and downstream views from its raised position on the southern riverbank.

Magnificent riparian trees line the banks, providing dappled shade and cover for predator and prey alike. Tucked away under the leafy canopy, the camp becomes one with its surroundings. Raised on wooden walkways to limit the impact on the sensitive riverbank it's a mystical haven that whispers of adventure and the spirit of wild Africa. Irresistible... Alluring... Beguiling...
