

KISAWA SANCTUARY
MOZAMBIQUE

Tropical Oasis

Picture five kilometres of pristine Mozambique coastline in the Bazaruto Archipelago, 300 hectares of calm sanctuary and coastal forest that's home to throngs of birds and small mammals, and in all that space just 12 deeply private and magnificently luxurious residences. Some are in coves, others sheltered by dunes, all have magical beachfront and enchanting forest – and so much peaceful breathing space you can hear your heart beat. When here, it feels like Benguerra island is all yours, that you're in harmony with surrounding nature, and all is well. Which it is, on so many levels.
