V&A Waterfront • South Africa

The PortsWood, situated in the V&A Waterfront, is part of Cape Town's colonial history. The restaurant and lobby are built over the original well and holding cells for prisoners en route to Robben Island 300 years ago. Today, the PortsWood is famous for its uniquely personal approach to service - catering to the international traveller's every need and anticipating their every desire. Rich in South Africa's unique culture, the PortsWood is a must for any traveller.
