INTRODUCTION

Depart George and prepare for a scenic tour of the Montagu Pass. Part romantic, part scary, the dusty road through the Outeniqua Mountains is steeped in history and stories. Built by convicts in the 1840s, the pass was one of only a few roads that connected the Karoo and the coast, and was considered to have revolutionised travel and transport in the region. Hidden away at the top of this pass is a little gem, Herold Wines which has a variety of wines with cheese platters to the liking of the connoisseur.

INTRODUCTION

After a journey of two-and-a-half years, and significant investment from local business people, the vision is now a reality. The Outeniqua Farmer’s Market opened to the public on Saturday 19 November 2011. The five-hectare site lies opposite the Garden Route Mall at the George junction on the N2. Visitors to the Outeniqua Farmers’ Market will find more than 150 food and craft stalls spread across a total trading area of 1 260m².

The ancient name Outeniqua means ‘the land where honey comes from’. This changed on 19 November 2011 when the Outeniqua Farmers’ Market opened, providing a new shopping destination that created a new heart for George. From that day onwards, Outeniqua is the land where honey, cheese, veggies, pies, cakes, fruit and other delicious foods come from.

INTRODUCTION
Welcome - and brief introduction to the history of coffee. A quick tour through our roasting facility and some discussion about the different coffee etc. This will handle the “bean-to-cup” concept. A cupping session - we will “cup” and taste three or four different coffee beans and rate them on a chart. After this, the Guests will be able to establish their own unique blend of coffee and take home a 250g packet. We roast on almost a daily basis so the patrons should be able to witness this as well. Enjoy something to eat and maybe a cappuccino or fresh squeezed juice.
