DAY 1 • 2 • 3

A mere 45-minute flight from Nairobi will find you in the midst of the Masai Mara, one of the most wildlife-rich zones in the world. 'Mara' in the language of the Masai means 'spotted' or 'dotted', and indeed, the landscape is littered with game. The perfect place to start, Ngare Serian is an intimate little camp: set along the banks of the Mara River, the sounds of rushing water are punctuated by languorous laughing hippo and animals visiting to drink. Early-morning explorations, picnic lunches under trees, sundowners and bush dinners – with exclusive use of vehicle, the game drive possibilities are endless, and your schedule all comes down to what you happen to feel like on the day.

DAY 4

Set in our own conservation area that no one has access to but us, we have built a little tree house above a lively salt lick on the Mara River. A fantastic position to perch and watch the world go by, by night nothing but branches between you and the stars. Walking this wild space, you will feel the opening of your senses, sharpening in response to the immediacy of the wilderness: vision, sound, smell all respond to the challenge of perceiving and reading the primordial signals of the bush. Your local Masai guides will teach you to see the landscape through their eyes, and immeasurably enhance the richness of the way you experience it. Enjoy the active participation of engaging with your surrounds, and cultivate a fuller appreciation of the myriad intricacies that make up the magic of the bush.

DAY 5 • 6 • 7

Heading southwards across Rhino Ridge and past Paradise Plains, you will reach Nkorombo – our cosy little mobile camp, nestled in an olive grove on the Mara riverbanks. We're right next to a lively salt lick, and sightings often feature black rhino, as lion and leopard on the lookout for kill. There is an abundance of prey in this area, and it's the perfect spot for spectacular game viewing – and from June to November, is a front-row seat for watching the wildebeest and zebra as they make their crossings of the Mara river mere metres away.

NIGHTS AT NKOROMBO MOBILE

“Dear Serian, thank you for a most extraordinary, gentle, but powerful introduction to the wild world of the African savannah which is glorious and so much more peaceful than the urban life!”

*"It really is quite an amazing and different world out there, and hard to think that it's only just over a week ago that I could look in all directions and see nothing but grass, trees and animals for miles and miles, and here see nothing but buildings buildings buildings and not even a single blade of grass!!"
